PANDEMONIUM IN MUNICIPAL COUNCIL

VERBAL DUEL & WALK-OUT AGAINST CHAIR'S RULING

Mysore, June 7

Verbal duel, uproarious scenes and walk-out by the Opposition members marked the proceedings of the City Municipal Council, last evening.

The Council discussed for nearly three hours the Government Order according sanction to the acquisition of properties for the formation of a straight road from the Statue Square to the Chamundi road on the following conditions:

1. To find out alternative sites and provide at resonable prices giving priority; 2. attempts for putting up of a multi-storeyed building for housing displaced tenants in collaboration with the municipality; 3. in the disposal of shop-sites to be newly formed, the present shop-cum-house owners to be carefully given reasonable priority; 4. possibility of putting up of tenaments on hire-purchase basis; 5. to allow reasonable time for shifting

The G. O. has pointed out that the scheme of formation of the road at a cost of Rs. 4,10,000 was sanctioned as early as 1953 as the third stage of a comprehensive scheme in view of the ugly and insanitary structures in the area.

During the discussion, a number of point of orders were raised from both the sections of theHouse. Opposition members maintained that acquisition proceedings should be deferred till such time as the Trust Board made suitable housing arrangements and a resolution to that effect was moved by Sri Srikanta Sharma. The President upheld the point of order raised by Sri Narayanaswamy (Congress) that the resolution was out of order as it ran counter to the Government Order.

Then Sri Aziz Sait moved an observation to be recorded to the effect that the acquisition proceedings should be put off till an agreement was reached between the Municipailty and Trust Board. This was also ruled out by the Chair.

When Sri T.V. Srinivasa Rao was on his legs to raise another point of order, President Kempe Gowda said that Sri B Narayanaswamy had moved a motion for closure of discussion on the subject and hence he would take a vote on it.

This touched off a sharp duel between the President and Sri T. V. Srinivasa Rao.

Sri Srinivasa Rao questioned the propriety of a closure motion being taken into consideration by the Chair, when it was moved by a member sitting and without being seconded and which could not be even heard by others.

Sri Aziz Sait cried that the Chair should be impartial and not undemocratic.

There was confusion as both the Congress and the Opposition members were shouting at one another.

Meanwhile the President put the closure motion and then the Government Order to vote and declared that both were carried.

Opposition members protesting against the "undemocratic behaviour" of the Chair, walked out.

They returned after a few minutes.

There was again an uproarious scene over the admissibility of consideration of interpellations tabled by Sri Srinivasa Rao. This was followed by exchange of hot words and unparliamentary remarks between the Opposition and the Congress members. There were shouts and beating of tables with paper-weights and this atmosphere continued for a long time.

Autonomous Board For Education

SHRIMALI'S SUGGESTION

Bangalore, June 9

The Union Education Minister, Dr. Shrimali suggested here yesterday the formation of an autonomous board for framing courses, conducting examinations, awarding diplomas and certificates and maintaining standards in education.

Inaugurating the conference of all-India association of training colleges, he said such a board might function at the State level and which might also collaborate with other State boards in divising and implementing national policies and programmes.

He said professional organisations like the association should take upon themselves the responsibility of making a survey of the present position and working out of a master plan for reorganisation to teacher training institutions all over the country.

As long as the quality of entrants to the teaching profession continued to be what it was, the training college would have a difficult task. The normal training schools and the training colleges at the undergraduate and graduate levels, run under departmental control, had suffered in the past on account of bureaucratisation.

K.D.s Arrested

Mysore, June 9

The work of a village panchayat in Varanasi district is entirely conducted by women.

All the office-bearers of the panchayat are women belonging to the boatmen community. They were elected uncontested.

The village is mostly inhabitated by mallahs (boatmen).

Dr. Shrimali regretted that the universities and other institutions of higher learning had not taken much interest in the programme of teaching training. "Those who are at the top of the pyramid must realise that if education at lower levels deteriorates for lack of competent teachers, higher and professional education would also suffer since it rests upon the foundation provided by elementary and secondary education", he added.

The conference adopted a resolution urging the All-India Association to undertake immediately a national survey of teachers' education under the Third Plan.

Give Up LMP Course

INTEGRATED MEDICAL CONFERENCE PRESIDENT'S PLEA

Mysore, June 9

Dr. T. V. Kasturi, in his presidential address to the 13th conference of the Integrated Medical Association, here yesterday, pleaded for a Central Council of Integrated Medicine to be constituted immediately in the country.

He said that both the indigenous and modern systems had much to give to each other and it would be detrimental to the growth of medical science if they kept them exclusively in watertight compartments.

Dr. Kasturi refuted the allegation that practitioners of Integrated medicine were using only allopathi medicines and said it was only a malicious propaganda.

He said that there should be an integrated type of study throughout the country with a uniform syllabus and curriculum.

The President urged that the Government should provide opportunities to the practitioners of integrated system by employing them in the National Health Schemes and giving them same status and facilities provided to the assistant surgeons in medical and health departments.

The decision of the State Government to revive the LMP course should be abondoned and the integrated practitioners should be given all encouragement and facilities to serve in the rural areas, he added.

He also called for more allocation for Indian medicine in the Third Plan.

MEMORANDUM

In a memorandum presented, the conference pleaded for reorganising the entire administrative structure of institutions of indigenous medicine bringing them under a uniform administration.

It also urged that the Mysore Service regulations should be made applicable to Ayurvedic and Unani physicians giving them the same status of pay-scales and other facilities as were extended to doctors working in Local Fund dispensaries of the Medical department and to upgrade Taluk Board indigenous dispensaries to the level of Local Fund dispensaries.

Tartarate From Tamarind

Mysore, June 10

A process on pectin and tartarate from tamarind fruit pulp has recently been developed here at the Central Food Technological Research Institute. Tartaric acid and its salts like potassium sodium tartarate are extensively in use in various food, pharmaceutical and chemical industries. Pectin is used for the manufacture of fruit products like jams, jellies, preserves and marmalades. Indigenous manufacture of tartaric acid, its salts and pectin is expected to effect considerable saving in foreign exchange.

Tamarind grows extensively in India in both cultivated and wild forms. About 300,000 tons of tamarind pulp are available every year. The pulp contains 12–15% tartaric acid and 2.5–3% pectin. The acid pulp of the ripe fruit is used mostly for culinary purposes and recovery of pectin and tartarates has not been attempted so far.

Working on the utilization of tamarind fruit pulp, the Institute has developed a process for recovering pectin and tartarates from the pulp. The tamarind pulp is extracted with hot water and the extract obtained by centrifuging the boiled slurry. The extract is concentrated in an evaporator. Pectin is precipitated by adding alcohol to the extract from which tartarates have been previously removed.

Revival Of LMP Course

MPCC CHIEF OPPOSES

Bangalore, June 12

The Mysore Pradesh Congress Chief, Sri S. Nijalingappa stated yesterday that there was no need to impose ceilings on coffee plantations in the State, now or in the future.

He told pressmen that the acreage under coffee in Malnad had already dwindled from about a lakh to two lakh acres some 70 years ago to about 70,000 acres, though there was abundant potential for growing coffee there. In these circumstances, he said, when there was no pressure on plantation, there was no need to frighten the coffee planters with the threat of ceilings now or in future.

HIGH DAMS IN COORG

Referring to the agitation in Coorg against the proposed high dams in the heart of the coffee-orange rich district, across Harangi and Kambadakada, he felt that the water resources in Coorg could be exploited without upsetting the present conditions, by constructing one more low dam in that area.

LMP COURSE OPPOSED

Sri Nijalingappa opposed the proposal to revive the LMP course and said that there should be no two standards in respect of medical aid. Medical education should be standardised.

BACKWARDNESS

He said he was glad that during the recent discussion on Nagan Gowda report, the members of the Legislature had expressed themselves in favour on deciding the backwardness on the basis of economic conditions and not on communal considerations.

There were some in the so-called backward classes who were rich and therefore, it was wrong to determine forwardness or backwardness on the basis of religion. It was high time, he said, that the problem was viewed from a scientific rational angle.

PLANNIG POLL STRATEGY

HINDI NOT YET FIT FOR LINGUA FRANCA

Bangalore, June 19

Dr. C. P. Ramaswamy Iyer yesterday strongly criticised the linguistic fanaticism and wondered, if very soon, even sub-regional languages would not enter the fry.

He said "the realities of the situation will dawn only when, in future, people are asked to carry pocket dictionaries when they travel from State to State, from region to region. This kind of a thing cannot pass muster in any civilised society".

He told pressmen that there was no hope of Hindi assuming the role of a national language for a number of years to come.

He said a chauvinistic approach to the question of national language could not achieve the miracle for Hindi. The plain fact was that the language was still far away from perfection and would take too long a time to build up the vocabulary for claiming itself as the lingua franca of the country.

Dr. Iyer said that even if by the sheer force of the wave of linguistic sentiment sweeping the country at the moment, English was nosed out, it was destined to stage a come-back after a decade, when the linguistic frenzy would have ultimately consumed itself.

MENON'S WARNING TO PAKISTAN

Speaking at a public meeting in Bombay, he said that unlike the Portuguese who fired on unarmed satyagrahis who entered Goa in 1955, "we shall not use violence against unarmed people, but we have no obligation to feast those who are not welcome to enter our territory".

Sri Menon declared that as for any attempt by armed men to cross the cease-fire line, they would "get a warm reception from the Indian army".

Referring to reported plans in Pakistan to organise mass movement across the cease-fire line in Kashmir, he said that while any violation of the cease-fire line would be met with adequate response, "we shall not exhaust ourselves with premature response to this war of nerves".

The Defence Minister said India regarded her soverignity over the territory formerly ruled by the Maharaja of Jammu and Kashmir as complete and declared that "India will not tolerate Pakistan entering into agreement with China over any part of the territory or with other nations to establish foreign bases there".

PSP Election Plans

The National Executive of the Praja Socialist Party meeting at Madras yesterday decided to contest the coming general elections only in such places where the party has sufficient organisational strength.

Sri Prem Bhasin, Joint Secretary stated that there would be no electoral alliance, adjustment or understanding between the party and the other parties including the Congress.

GEN. ELECTIONS SUMMONS OF DESTINY

SAYS PSP MANIFESTO

The National Executive of the Praja Socialist Party, meeting at Madras, has drawn up its election manifesto highlighting the threat to India's frontiers and the humiliation of alien occupation of vast tracts of Indian soil, by Pakistan, China and Portugal and criticises the "insipid" leadership of the Government which failed to meet the Chinese aggression.

The manifesto stated that the exposed outposts need to be manned by those with fortitude and faith and over-reaching importance and urgency of the task make the coming general elections not mere manoeuvrings for power but veritable summons of destiny.

The PSP, therefore, welcomes the forthcoming general elections as providing sorely needed opportunity to the people to give their verdict on the policies and programme so far followed by the ruling party, to relax and wherever possible, break the stronghold of power which it has enjoyed all these years on the basis of minority votes polled in elections, to arrest the growing sense of frustration and apathy in the country and to get back into the great current of endeavour and faith that characterised India's pilgrimage to freedom.

No Revision Of Water Pact

A. P. CONGRESSMEN'S PLEA

The Andhra Pradesh Congress Political Conference yesterday urged the Government of India to uphold the 1951 inter-State agreement on the allocations of the waters of the Krishna and Godavari and accord immediate clearance to the Pochampad and Srisailam projects.

The resolution regretted the unfortunate controversy raised by Mysore and Maharashtra and said that the allocation was settled by the agreement with the concerned States in 1951 for a period of 25 years after a full examination of all the relevant data.

It said any undue restrictions placed on utilisation of its irrigation capacity would be extremely harmful to the whole nation and would give a set-back to its goal of self-sufficiency in food.

ATTACK BY RED LEADER

Sri B.T.Ranadhive, member of the Central Executive of the Communist Party of India speaking warned against the ghost of communalism raising its ugly head in the country, which he said, was breaking the national unity.

He regretted that it had now become a privilege authority to call ones-own self as backward, where as about 15-20 years back, we used to call ourselves Indians at first. "Today they call first a Lingayat, Karnataka and then Indian". Another distinction had now been added of South and North.

He said that the internal politics in Congress Party was responsible for this new casteism. In many States the dissensions in the Congress were not remedy but as to who should dominate over the other caste.

Sri Ranadhive stated that one more problem had crept in, that of Hindu-Muslim. The "old mischievous" Muslim League had raised its head again on the plea that it had just problems. This League had not only done injustice to our Muslims but also to Pakistanis.

Sri P.C. Joshi and Mouniah also spoke.

UNIFORM GRANT-IN-AID CODE TO AIDED SCHOOLS

CHIEF MINISTER'S ASSURANCE

Mysore, July 5

Chief Minister Jatti stated here that aided management had to play a very important role in the field of secondary education especially at a time when all State Governments were confronted with the problem of implementing the programme of the compulsory education to the children of the age group 6-11 during the Third Plan. The cost of implementing the scheme was going to be nearly Rs. 861 lakhs per year. Consequent on increased facilities for higher primary education during the Second Plan period, a greater demand for high school education might be expected during the Third Plan period. As the cost involved was too heavy aided agencies would have to come forward to take up the responsibility of providing amenities for secondary education and help Government in facing the problem.

He was speaking at the Valedictory function of the Conference of MysoreState Non-Government Secondary Schools held here on Sunday at Banumiah's High School.

Sri Jatti said that a welcome feature noticed during these years was increasing interest of the public had been evincing in the field of secondary education. From 1956-57 when they had 285 aided schools they had now 457 in the entire State. During the Third Plan the Government proposed to start only 10 high schools. It was expected that 200 more high schools would be necessary to meet demand for additional enrolement of 58,000 during the Third Plan and he hoped that all these high schools would come up under the private sector. To encourage private sector they had made a provision of Rs. 30 lakhs during the Third Plan.

The Chief Minister stressing the imprtance of maintaining good standards said, quality should not be sacrificed at the altar of mere numerical progress.

The pivot of the whole education system was the teacher and unless he was kept contented they could not expect to achieve good results. This has been realised by the Government and they had been trying to do best in this direction.

The Government, Sri Jatti said, had been alive to the fact that in recent years private management were finding it difficult to run their institutions At present grant-in-aid rules varied from area to area in the State. He assured that the Government would finalise a uniform grant-in-aid code as early as possible.

Earlier Sri B. V. Banumiah, Secretary welcomed the gathering.

INDIA WILL NOT TOLERATE ATTCK ON KASHMIR

NEHRU TELLS PAKISTAN

Prime Minister Nehru declared yesterday at Srinagar that "India will not tolerate any fresh attack on Kashmir".

He said that Pakistan could get the latest and mostly deadly weapons from the United States. India could not match the weapons of U.S. or of Russia, but, in spite of that, India would not tolerate any fresh threat to Kashmir.

Sri Nehru said that threats of sending lot of satyagrahis into Kashmir were also being held out by Pakistan, but "we have enough room for these so-called satyagrahis".

The Prime Minister told a public meeting that Pakistan was bent on achieving its objectives in Kashmir through resort to force of arms, but India sought friendship with Pakistan. That he said, did not mean that Kashmir would be offered on a platter to Pakistan.

He said "I do not wish to use harsh words but threats from Pakistan will not solve disputes"

Sri Nehru said in Pakistan there was essentially a military mentality. India too, he said, had its armies and generals. But armies and generals did not interfere with the Government of the country. In Pakistan orders were given by the army and generals. This military mentality led to a policy of hate and animosity against India, whether the question involved was Kashmir or any other issue.

He described President Ayub Khan's utterance before and during his British and American tours in regard to India as a "drama".

He said "I have never seen such political behaviour during my 40 to 50 years of public life. I too, have been in politics, but I have never seen such acting".

Keep Language Out From Religion

— NEHRU

Prime Minister Nehru stated yesterday the question of language must be isolated from religion as well as from politics, if it was to be tackled constructively. # KRISHNAN JAILED FOR TEN YEARS

IN 100-RUPEE FAKE NOTE CASE

The Additional Sessions Judge, Madras, yesterday, sentenced G. Krishnan, a mill magnate to ten years rigorous imprisonment in the Coimbatore 100-Rupee Counterfeit Currency Case.

G. Padmanabhan, a former sub-inspector of police and K. R. Anthony were also sentenced each to ten years R. I.

Five other accused, Hameed, Periaswamy, Thambu, George and Muralidhar were each sentenced to 7 years R.I.

Four other accused were acquitted.

The Judge in his judgement observed that the successful large scale forgery of bank notes might have disastrous effect on the strength and economy of the State. These counterfeit notes had created a scare not only in Coimbatore but also in other places. The hardships and suffering undergone by innocent victims who happen to possess such notes could hardly be described.

The Judge said the first accused Krishnan had conspired with others to commit the offence of counterfeiting bank notes on account of greed, inspite of having extensive property. Having printed the bank notes and got them after spending considerable amounts, on May 4, 1959 he attempted to utter them to a cotton merchant on the next day. He got them back on a complaint about the genuiness of the notes. Thereafter the attempts of Krishnan had been to destroy incriminating evidence. Thus it did not appear that Krishnan was financially benefitted by the foolish and criminal venture.

The Judge also paid tributes to the officers and the police who did a good job with scrupulous honesty and promptitude in unearthing the conspiracy, in which powerful persons were involved.

SLAUGHTER OF INNOCENTS

Sir—Things in the Education Department seem to have become chaotic. Government cancelled the Lower Secondary examination some years ago.

Last year, without Government sanction, the Mysore D. E. O., held an examination, supplying question papers to the schools, and letting them value and declare passes. The passes were the usual 40 to 50%.

This year the D. E. O. supplied the question papers, the school teachers supervised, but the answer papers were got valued by teachers of another school. And they committed a wholesale slaughter.

On public complaints at the heavy slaughter, the heads of schools were asked to hold another examination. The schools in the city held them, and some schools have declared the passes, and issued T.C.s, while others are still with holding the results'. And 2 months are over since the High Schools opened.

The students and parents feel disgraced, and are seeking remedy. Does the Department want the parents to take its dirty linen to the High Court?

Education Not Taught Tolerance —SAYS NEHRU

Prime Minister Nehru yesterday appealed to educators to consider seriously why education had not succeeded in eliminating violence and hostility from the minds of men and nations.

Inaugurating the tenth assembly of the World Confederation of Organisations of the Teaching Profession, at Delhi, Sri Nehru described the present problems before the world as "very serious and grave when no man can say what may descend upon us in the course of the next few months" and said that a peaceful co-operative international approach had become essential to the world's growth, even to the world's survival.

Sri Nehru said that "our minds function in a previous age, looking at things in narrow way, narrow even from a nationalist concept." A "narrow tribal outlook" still governed even in highly civilised nations who looked upon the world as some kind of "a projection" of their thinking. If the world does not function in that way, they are dissatisfied and angry. "Any kind of approach to problems, which is coloured by the outlook of fear and hatred is a bad approach. And the approach of the cold war is essentially an approach of fear and hatred", he added.

Make Man Decent Human Being

CALL TO EDUCATORS

Dr. Radhakrishnan yesterday stated that education must make man a dignified human being.

Declaring open the newly-constructed Centenary Building of the Madras University, he said that people talked of national integration. But how could that come, he asked, so long as children fresh from the "mint" of nature, who had so much of generosity and fellow-feeling and sympathy were "indoctrinated into ideas that they belonged to this caste or that. this community, this province or that religion".

He added "the child has a universality of outlook. We do not have it." But children were seduced from their national feelings. This indoctrination had started and goes on and now "what is necessary is that education should teach them habits of behaviour and must make them dignified and decent human beings".

Covering an overall area of a quarter square kilometre, the ancient site, Kalibangan, consists of two closely-situated yet separate mounds, rising to a maximum height of 12 metres above the surrounding plane. The principal aims of the Third Plan are:

1. To secure an increase in national income of over five per cent per annum, the pattern of investment being designed also to sustain this rate of growth during subsequent plan periods.

2. To achieve self-sufficiency in foodgrains and increase agricultural production to meet the requirements of industry and exports.

3. To expand the basic industries like steel, chemical, fuel and power and establish machine-building capacity, so that the requirements of further industrialisation can be met within a period of ten years mainly from the country's own resources.

Flood Relief Not Adequate & Timely

—MALLAKADHYA

Mysore, Aug. 9

Sri J. B. Mallaradhya, leader of the Opposition in the State Legislative Assembly, who toured in the flood-affected areas in Nanjangud, T. Narasipur and Kollegal taluks, stated here yesterday that the relief granted was neither "adequate nor timely".

He told pressmen that the gratuitous grant had not reached the villages and there was too much red-tapism.

He regretted that not even a single village had received taccavi loan. He wanted that the scheme to be modified so as to give loans on personal security to needy people.

Owing to erosion and accumulation of sand, thousands of acres of land had lost fertility. The Government should immediately see that sand was removed by mechanised means on a regional basis and distribute commercial fertilisers free of cost to the poor.

He also suggested that on an emergent basis, seed grains should be rushed to the ryots so they could take up cultivation within these 15 days. He also wanted that agricultural season-letting of water through channels, should be extended.

It was not enough, he said, that this year's land revenue was exempted. He wanted that arrears of land revenue should be suspended for two or three years.

Mr. Mallaradhya wanted that the Government should take power by legislation to shift the people compulsorily from the low-lying areas.

He suggested that non-party statutory committees on State, district and taluk levels should be constituted to take immediate relief measures and the special officers should assist the committee.

Welcoming the revision of the Mysore Financial Code, he said that the proportion of allotment should be increased along with the powers given to the officers.

He said the happiest part of my stay in Bangalore was the time that "I spent in the court hall".

5-POINT PLAN FOR WORLD TEACHERS

The World Confederation of Organisations of Teaching Profession, which concluded its session yesterday at Delhi has recommended five-point programme to world educators.

Land-Army Move

Mysore, Aug. 9

INDIA COULD COUNT ON U.S. HELP

IF PAK ATTACKS, SAYS BOWLES

Mr. Chester Bowles, U.S. Under-Secretary of State declared yesterday at Delhi that America was determined to give large-scale economic aid for India's "sound plan and programmes".

He assured that India could count on the United State's help if she was ever attacked by any country.

Mr. Bowles added that it would be "a silly thing" for the U. S. to help in the building of India on the one hand and to see the country torn down on the other.

He knew that Indians could not be happy about the 1954 agreement under which the U.S. was committed to give military aid to Pakistan for specific purpose-defence against Communist attack..

The U.S. strongly felt, he said, that India and Pakistan should work together co-operatively not only in matters of common defence but also in economic development. "We feel we can do everything economically and otherwise to help the two countries to come closer".

RUSSIA WILL NOT CAUSE WAR

——SAYS KHRUSHCHEV

The Soviet Premier Khrushchev declared yesterday that Russia will not cause war and said that only a madman could reply with war to a peaceful initiative.

He said the Soviet people were realistically evaluating the situation. The dark clouds would pass away and the bright sun would appear. "We will do everything possible in order to prevent a new war".

The Soviet Premier said that Russia had the blue print for a nuclear bomb with the power of 100megatons (a megaton is equivalent to one million tons of tnt). But the USSR did not plan to use such a bomb unless it was forced to do so one day by the insane act of an adversary seeking suicide.

Mr. Khrushchev repeated that no threats whatever "will stop us and the peace treaty with Germany will be signed".

PROMOTION OF L. S. STUDENTS

NO INJUSTICE DONE

—SAYS DDPI

Mysore, Aug. 12

Sri H. V. Srirangaraju, Deptuy Director of Public Instruction, made it clear here yesterday that no injustice had been done to students and parents, as was alleged, about the recent decision of the Education department that students who had been promoted to the VIII standard after holding a second test should be reverted

He told pressmen that in 1960, rules regarding the class examination in the L.S. was relaxed by allowing a student to re-appear for the examination if he had sat for whole or part of it on account of illness or having appeared and failed in one or more subjects on account of illness. This relaxation was meant that such students should be small.

He said that it was so in 1960. But in 1961 certain persons tried to take undue advantage of the concession and attempted to get their children who had failed in the examination re-examined by producing medical certificates.

The DDPI cited an example as many as 39 students who had failed produced medical certificates after the issue of the circular and were re-examined and 38 were declared passed. He questioned whether this could be true and can medical certificates issued be relied upon ?

Owing to this misuse, the depratment made it clear that only those who could not take the examination on account of illness or those who were suddenly taken ill at the time of the examination were entitled for re-examination and not others.

According to official report, 327 students had been reverted.

But he assured that among these, if there were genuine cases, they would be given promotion.

WHY ENHANCE RENT?

Sir,-492 houses were constructed for industrialists at Rajendranagar, in N. R. Mohalla in the city seven years back. These houses were vacant for a long time as the Housing Board was not in favour of rent out them for Rs. 4 each.

In 1954, the Board announced that the houses will be given to anybody who executed an agreement with two months rent as advance. Accordingly many non-industrialists and Government servants occupied these houses.

It is now surprising that these tenents are asked to pay enhanced rent from Rs. 8.50 to Rs. 17 from June 1961 and also for a fresh agreement. How can the Board go on changing as and when it wants?

As this will cause great hardship, will the authorities withdraw the order enhancing the rent?

Role Of Geology For Prosperous India

KABIR'S STRESS

Mysore, Aug. 21

The important role of geology in the reconstruction of the country was stressed by Prof. Humayun Kabir, Union Minister for Scientific Research and Cultural Affairs, here yesterday, when he laid the foundation of the Geology Block of the Mysore University, at the new campus in Manasa Gangotri.

Prof. Kabir said that geology was the basic fundamental science without which none of the processes of development could have taken place. He said science of geology was of very great help from practical, utilitarian and cultural points of view.

He added that "we want to build a rich and prosperous India, providing adequate opportunities to all and help them lead a contented life".

We often forget, he said, that basis for our fissiparous tendencies was stark poverty and lack of opportunities not only in the field of education but in every field of activity. He said geologists had therefore to play a great role in the creation of wealth, which would provide opportunities for all.

Prof Kabir stated that knowledge in the past was the exclusive preserve of a minority section. But today it had changed.

Knowledge was power and any community that realised this had prospered.

PUNJABI SUBA AGITATION

COMMUNALISM IN GUISE OF LANGUAGE

—SAYS NEHRU

Prime Minister Nehru regretted yesterday about the Punjabi Suba agitation and said it was not a language issue but a communal issue in the guise of language.

He said "it is impossible to divide up the Punjab in any way without leaving a large number of people who did not fit in that proposed division.

Sri Nehru said that language was really of small importance relatively in the modern context of things. It could be settled easily if looked at in the modern context.

The trouble in the Punjab arose not because of the language issue. It was a tragedy that the courage and ability of a brave province should be wasted in internal quarries.

He declared that there should not be any language issue. "As far as this question goes, the Government and the Constitution have followed a generous policy compared to any country in the world".

There was no room left for any kind of dispute on the language issue, provided the decisions of policy (protection of minorities) were properly implemented. However, language was not a matter to be considered on the political level but at the level of educationists.

He hoped that 'some kind of settlement will come in the Punjab out of the existing morass".

TEMPER OF SCIENCE

FOR REMOVING BACKWARDNESS

——SAYS NEHRU

Prime Minister Nehru stated yesterday that many of the internal troubles like communalism, casteism or linguism were due to social backwardness in our thinking, living and habits and the lack of scientific temper.

The caste system had done enormous harm to India and she would not progress until she was completely rid of this social backwardness, he added.

Unless the country developed the temper of science in dealing with its own problems or those of the world, national integration could not be achieved.

Inaugurating the Indian Parliamentary and Scientific Committee, Sri Nehru emphasised the need for creating a climate of science in the country and said that leading scientists could help to raise the standard of science education in universities by giving lectures periodically.

He also suggested that senior engineers and other technically qualified personnel in Government service should, instead of being made to sit in offices all the time, do jobs in the fields.

Stating that social backwardness stood in the way of their advance and national integration, he said that all the five-year plans and the big factories and plants that they put up did not really touch the core of the problem. "We may be very keen on putting up a plant or a factory and yet we ourselves, are entangled in the webs of social backwardness".

Sri Nehru asked scientists not only to be good at his science but should have that temper so that he could create a climate of science in the country.

Punjabi Suba Demand Rejected

BASICALLY COMMUNAL, SAYS NEHRU

Prime Minister Nehru yesterday rejected the demand for the formation of a Punjabi Suba, as it was basically communal.

He told the Lok Sabha that he was prepared to hold an enquiry into the working of the Regional Formula and also if necessary into the charge that the Sikhs had been discriminated against.

Sri Nehru declared that any division of the Punjab would be harmful to the people of the State, both Hindus and Sikhs, and would come in the way of progress of the State which was more homogenous and integrated than many States and as one of the most prosperous States with the highest per capita income.

He said that any artificial division would leave large numbers of persons on either side whose sympathies would be for the other side. Thus an element of friction would be created and this would continue and prevent harmonious and co-operative working. To partition the existing State would not only be a break with history and tradition, but would cause deep injury to the economy of the State and the lives of the brave people who lived there.

TARA SINGH REFUSES TO BUDGE

NO PUNJABI SUBA
DECISION IRREVOCABLE
—SAYS NEHRU

Prime Minister Nehru stated in the Lok Sabha yesterday that the Government's decision not to accede to the demand for a Punjabi Suba had been taken after a careful consideration of all the consequences and the decision was irrevocable.

He added that "I cannot see any possibility arising in future which will make us change this decision".

He appealed to Master Tara Singh and Swami Rameshwaranand to give up their fast. However, he made it clear that hunger-strikes would not be recognised as legitimate in the solution of any problem. "If the impression grows that this hunger-strikes succeeded in achieving a certain object then there will be no end to trouble in India and in every problem somebody will hunger-strike".

Sri Nehru rejected the argument that the same linguistic principal applied in the formation of Maharashtra and Gujarat States was involved in the Akali demand for a division in the Punjab. He said "Punjab is a linguistically integrated area, as integrated as any part of India and socially integrated by habits and customs. In every way it is integrated". He added that Hindus and Sikhs were an integrated woven community and if the lingustic principle was applied in the Punjab, "You will tear this fine-woven tapestry into two bits and spoil it". It would be a terrible thing to separate this integrated community and that was why he was resisting the formation of Punjabi Suba.

He declared that if Punjabi Suba was created, the whole of the Punjab would suffer and its progress hampered as the demand was obviously communal.

CHAIN OF FASTS UNTO DEATH

FOR PUNJABI SUBA

AKALIS THREAT

The Akali Dal Working Committee yesterday attacked Prime Minister Nehru and dubbed him as "a rank communalist and parochial".

The Working Committee said that a person of Sri Nehru's eminence has descended to such a "communal and parochial level as to become a source of positive incitement against a small minority".

The resolution stated that "the Sikhs are wedded to the sacred land of rishis and gurus, their motherland, but such insinuatory assertions on the part of Sri Nehru can only become instrumental in creating deep chasm between various social groups that inhabit this country".

The refusal on the part of the Prime Minister to accept the demand for a referendum was undemocratic.

The Committee said "Akalis have come forward to lay down the life of their dearest leader followed by a chain of fasts unto death to rouse the conscience of dispassionate citizens the world over against this dire discrimination".

GEN. EDUCATION IN PUC

Sir—Mr. B. V. Banumaiah's resolution at the Academic Council for discontining the teaching and examination in General Education at the Pre-University level is to be commended as one of correct understanding of the situation arising on account of the introduction of the same as part IV. It has revealed that the massacre of innocents is the ultimate result of such a step. The want of proper text books, imperfect teaching and valuation by examiners who had never taught the subject are among the main reasons for the collossal failures.

The Deans of the Karnataka and Mysore Universities have recommended that this subject should be deleted. The Karnataka University has done so from this acadamic year. I hope that the Mysore University would recommend for its deletion as early as possible. It is never too late to mend.

He regretted the decision of the Soviet Union to resume nuclear tests.

Sri Nehru suggested that to prevent the unleashing of a nuclear war, the Neutrals conference should not issue any mandate or denounce anyone as it might evoke sharp reactions and prevent the start of negotiations.

He warned that the conference should not get lost in the morass of details but give the big powers broad indications of the thinking of millions of people represented at the conference and exert their moral pressure in winning the big powers to the path of peace.

The only way to solve the problem, he said, was by complete disarmament. There was no choice left between negotiations for peace and war in this "crisis of human history".

INDIAN SHIPPING

With a coastline of over 3,500 miles, India has tremendous scope for developing its maritime activity, and sustained efforts have been made since Independence to add to the shipping tonnage and establish and develop shipyards.

The estimated expenditure on development of shipping during the Second Plan period was Rs. 52.7 crores.

Over the period of the First and the Second Plans the shipping tonnage increased from 3.9 lakh GRT to 9 lakh GRT. Of the tonnage acquired, coastal shipping accounted for 2.92 lakh GRT and overseas, 6.13 lakh GRT in 1960-61.

The Indian owned tonnage employed in overseas trade by the end of 1960 consisted of 82 vessels as against 68 vessels in 1959.

The Third Plan provides an outlay of Rs. 55 crores for shipping. In addition, Rs. 4 crores is likely to be made available from the Shipping Development Fund and the shipping companies are expected to contribute Rs. 7 crores from their own resources.

It is expected that about 57 ships with a tonnage of 375,000 GRT will be acquired during the next five years.

GRAMSEVAKS TO BECOME INSPIRED VILLAGE WORKERS

MINISTER SUBRAMANYA'S PLEA

Mysore, Sept. 6

Inaugurating the regional seminar on Extension Training, here today, Local Self-Government Minister Subramanya stated that with all the development activities, villages were still the testing ground for our achievements and this situation was bound to continue for generation to come.

In his opinion any attempt to raise the standard of life in the country should invariably take the villager into account. This meant they had to earnestly work for improvements of farms and rural homes.

The quick transformation in rural occupations had to be brought about by the application of science and technology. A sound extension system for betterment of farm productivity, home living and community life was very essential. In this Gramsevaks occupied the key position.

The Minister said that the task of training gramsevaks was one of the great responsibility. They had a really challenging task in turning young gramsevaks into inspired and informed workers. It required most exacting and intelligent work in order to instil a strong desire for village work, equip them with the minimum technical-matter knowledge which lent itself to practical application and to train them in appropriate methods of working with and organising the rural people.

Sri Subramanya said that the task of raising the level of living of 480 million people was neither simple nor easy. It demanded hard, devoted and self-less work of each one of us. Any half-hearted attempts and indifferent approach on the part of anyone would only slow down the pace of progress

Representatives from Mysore, Madras, Kerala, Andhra Pradesh, Maharashtra and Gujarat are attending the 4-day seminar organised by the Union Food and Agriculture Ministry.

Earlier, Sri B. Rudra Murthy, Principal of the Orientation and Study Centre welcomed the gathering.

Dr. J.C.Ramchandani, Director of Extension Training explained the object of the seminar and said it was to give a correct objective to gramsevaks and gramsevikas in effectively carrying out their functions in villages. The success of the entire community development rested upon the ability of these front-line workers to deliver the goods to the village people. He said by the end of 1965, they hope to train 10,000 gramsevaks

Dr. H. R. Arakere, the State Joint Director of Agriculture also addressed the gathering.

Sri I.P. Mathur, Director of Administration, Union Food and Agriculture Ministry, proposed a vote of thanks.

Speaking at a banquet given in honour of Prime Minister Nehru, the Soviet Premier said the question of a German peace treaty had become the key problem of our times. The signing of the peace treaty would solve the problem of the normalisation of the situation created in West Berlin. His proposals in this regard, he added, did not interfere with the interests of the Western Powers.

Mr. Khrushchev declared that "the people of the world need peace, but peace would not come by itself. It can be reached only by mutual and active efforts of all peoples and Governments including the neutral States. People cannot be merely indifferent to the problems of war and peace and the mere wish for peace would not remove the threat of war".

Prime Minister Nehru replying stated "nowadays with the tremendous possibilities for development not yet explored, it will be illogical, wrong, thoughtless and stupid to start a war. We are sincerely and eagerly devoted to peace and I know that you are also devoted to peace and that is why we sincerely hope, thanks to your efforts as well as the efforts of others, we may be able to enjoy peace, constructive peace and not destructive".

Whatever be the military justifications, such tests exposed humanity to great destruction and due regard should be given to the welfare of humanity.

He declared that he was ready to sit down at a conference table to discuss disarmament and said that if the United States and the Soviet Union reached an understanding, chances of international conflicts could be reduced. He stated that he was working towards removal of all roadblocks and open the way to good relations.

Mr. Khrushchev announced that he was convening an international conference to sign a peace treaty with both the West and East Germany and expressed the hope that even if the West did not participate in the conference at least others would.

WORLD SITUATION LITTLE LESS TENSE

NEHRU HOPEFUL OF BIG POWER TALKS ON BERLIN

Prime Minister Nehru who returned yesterday from Moscow stated that the international situation was a little less tense than it had been before the Belgrade conference.

He added that "anything may happen which may make it more tense". But he hoped that the leaders of the power blocks will meet and solve the crisis.

Sri Nehru affirmed that the Berlin crisis was capable of being resolved and he was sure Mr. Khrushchev and Mr.Kennedy will meet and settle the issue. "I think it is in a way quite fantastic to have a war about this matter or about differences on this matter".

He said the Berlin issue looked a crisis even from Moscow, but it was difficult to say how great it was. It was a crisis nonetheless "because rival view points and rival interests clash. I think it is capable of being resolved."

About the resumption of nuclear tests by Russia, Sri Nehru said that Mr. Khrushchev had publicly stated that their resumption had been painful to him. Mr. Khrushchev would like to give it up if conditions were favourable. "That is what he is thinking".

Sri Nehru could not say what the impact of the Belgrade appeal to Mr. Khrushchev was.

Bangalore, Sept. 16

After a 13-day debate, the Mysore Legislative Assembly yesterday adopted the Mysore Land Reforms Bill and adjourned sine die.

To the 142-clause Bill, nearly 500 amendments had been tabled by both the members of the Ruling and Opposition parties. Most of them were either withdrawn or voted down. Only six amendments were accepted.

The outstanding feature of the Bill was that the ceiling of land for the existing holdings was fixed at 27 standard acres, while the future acquisitions was restricted to 18 standard acres.

Plantations, orchards, sugarcane farms, efficiently managed farms, religious, charitable and educational institutions were exempted from the operation of the Bill.

With the implementation of the legislation, nearly two lakh acres would be available for distribution among the displaced and landless people. Over 25 lakh acres of land would be available for conferring the tenants with ownership rights.

When the Bill becomes law, transfer of agricultural land to non-agriculturalits would be prohibited.

In future, when the landlords intend selling their land, they should give first option to tenants and the surplus land would be disposed of according to priority already fixed.

Ten or more persons in a village holding 50 acres or more of land could form a co operative society to raise a farm.

Mr. Celal Bayar, former President of Turkey and ex-Premier Mr. Menders and 13 others were sentenced to death by the Special Court trying members of the former Democratic Party regime overthrown in a bloodless coup three months ago.

14 others were sentenced to life imprisonment.

More than 600 people were tried on charges of violation of the Constitution, planning the assasination of the Opposition leaders and misappropriation of State funds.

The Minister said that in the Third Plan more than Rs. 3 crores had been allotted for the development of small and rural industries and these, in his opinion, should be canalised through the co-operative agency.

Sri Linga Reddy, Deputy Planning Minister who presided, emphasised on the importance of developing rural crafts, for which, he said, the State would start more training institutions during the Third Plan.

Earlier, Sri B. Beerappa, Divisional Commissioner welcomed the gathering.

Scandalous Attitude of U.K.

ATTACK BY NEHRU

Prime Minister Nehru yesterday attacked the United Kingdom and other countries for the "amazing and scandalous" attitude in obstructing the functioning of the U. N. in the Congo.

Sri Nehru said he was sorry to say some great powers had been obstructive and coming in the way of the U.N. in spite of their professed love and admiration for the world organisation. They seemed to stand for "such noble champions of liberty as Mr. Tshombe", who had been involved in most brutal murders such as that of Mr. Lumumba.

The present action had been undertaken by the U.N. forces at the request of the Central Congolese Government. Firing was started first by foreign merceneries who had taken shelter in the Belgian Consulate. Some of the European mercenaries had, under the cover of the Red Cross, created trouble.

The manner in which certain powers had been functioning in the Congo was a typical example of how colonialism, although historically dead, was still giving trouble, Sri Nehru said.

DAG HAMMARSKJOELD KILLED

Kids Are Not Guinea Pigs

A. L. MUDALIAR WARNS

Dr. A. Lakshmanaswamy Mudaliar, Vice-Chancellor of the Madras University yesterday warned against "political authorities" making children their "guinea pigs" for experiments on education. He said nothing could be more catastrophic and devastating for the future of education than frequent and violent changes on considerations dictated by political authorities.

Presiding over the RBANM High School Founders' Day in Bangalore, he said that any mistake in the educational system might ruin a whole generation of youngmen and so the educational reformers should not be in too much hurry to introduce half-baked ideals on the young children for experimental purpose.

TRAGIC END TO PEACE MISSION IN CONGO

SHOT DOWN BY KATANGA AIRCRAFT

The U. N. Secretary-General, Mr. Dag Hammarskjoeld, was killed on Sunday night, when his plane crashed in the bush near Ndola in Northern Rhodesia.

He was on his way to vital peace talks with Katanga President Tshome.

12 others, including his top adviser on African affairs, Mr. Heinrich Wieschhoff, also perished.

The 56-year-old Secretary-General left Leopoldville, Congo capital on Sunday afternoon for meeting Moise Tshome. The plane contacted Ndola airport soon after midnight but passed over and contact ceased.

The plane crashed through trees, hit the ground at high speed and disintegrated.

A European police officer stated that he had seen a series of flashes in the sky. There was an explosion, followed by a series of smaller explosions on board.

An official of the Swedish airline company alleged that the aircraft was shot down by a "marauding" Katanga aircraft.

NEHRU'S TRIBUTE

Paying tributes to Mr. Dag as a great international civil servant, Prime Minister Nehru said "Whether this tragic incident was due to an accident or some kind of sabotage, I do not know. Conditions in the Congo are such that anything is possible".

Sri Nehru said "It is a special tragedy that he should have died in the Congo which has suddenly flared up again. It appears that the fighting in atanga against the U.N. forces is organised and led by European mercenaries. In effect, they have declared war against the U.N. and those who support them support this war against the U. N. The Rhodesian Government must partly bear responsibility for the attitude it has taken up in this matter."

It also promises stabilisation of prices of essential commodities and a resonable return to the producers of foodgrains. It assures the farmers that the prices of foodgrains will not be allowed to fallbelow a resonable minimum.

On the taxation policy, the manifesto says that it should be so devised as to aim at reducing the disparities in incomes and increasing the resources available for development.

On the question of ceiling urban incomes, the Congress feels it is necessary to have some limitations on high urban incomes through taxation and other means in order "to lesson the great disparities that exist today".

The manifesto declares that it must be India's policy to bring about vacation of the illegal occupation of certain parts of Indian territory by Pakistan and China.

Denouncing colonialism, it said that "Goa which is part of India must be brought into the Indian Union".

On education, the Congress promises a widespread scheme of scholarship as well as loans for boys and girls who have shown merit in their studies.

The manifesto endorses the Government's policy to work for peace and friendship of all countries and, at the same time, to avoid alignment with military block and alliances

Emphasising welfare programmes for children of the pre-school age, the manifesto reiterates the Third Plan scheme to provide universal free education to children in the age group of 6 to 11. It said "wherever possible the provision of midday meals as well as uniforms for children should be made with the co-operation of the people".

Of the several decisions taken at the meeting was the transfer of 7½-acre enclave in Abakavaripalli in Kolar District to Ananthapur District in Andhra Pradesh in exchange for an equal area to be specified and made over to Mysore later.

The Council recognised the importance of the Southern Power Grid and Mysore, while agreeing to the principle of inter-State link with Madras expressed its inability to find necessary funds to link the two States in the current plan.

The possibility of a joint meeting of the Western and Southern Zonal Councils to consider the disputes over the sharing the waters of Krishna and Godavari was indicated at the meeting, after the receipt of the Gulhati Commission report on the subject.

The meeting was also informed that the zonal reserve police force had come into being and details were being worked out.

Sri Ramaswamy also stressed the need for taking up Kottur-Harihar line as it was a necessary adjunct to the transport of ore from Bellary.

Referring to the amenities provided to railwaymen, the Deputy Minister said they now had 77 hospitals and 488 dispensaries and 10 mobile dispensaries and 1,100 beds reserved for railwaymen in various T.B Sanatoria. In the Second Plan, 57,000 houses were built for railwaymen at a cost of Rs. 37 crores and they proposed to build 54,000 more houses in the Third Plan.

The Governor, Sri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar declaring open the hospital complimented the Southern Railways for achieeing a large part of its Second Plan targets in respect of medical and health services.

He said that money spent in promoting general health welfare and happiness of employees was really a wise investment and the Railway administration was among the first employees in the country to realise this and act upon this principle.

ELECTRIFICATION OF MYSORE-BANGALORE LINE

NOT FEASIBLE, SAYS DEPUTY RAILWAY MINISTER

Mysore, Sept. 28

Union Deputy Railway Minister Sri S.V. Ramaswamy expressed his appreciation at the working of the local Mathru Mandali, which he visited yesterday, accompanied by his wife.

Welcoming the distinguished guests, Smt. K. S. Nagarathnamma, M L A, President of the Mandali, explained how the institution which took birth as a small nursery school had become a miniature of a variety of educational, cultural and social service activities, besides giving general education. She said that the Mandali was aiming at opening a high school and also a college and hoped that the State and Central Governments would give all possible assistance in their venture.

Smt. Nagarathnamma also pointed out that of late Mysore City was losing its importance and pleaded for opening more industrial concerns in the city. She said that the only hurdle that was being mentioned by all concerned was that the City had very little transport facilities. To overcome this difficulty, she said that the work of Chamarajnagar-Satyamangalam railway line and the electrification of Bangalore-Mysore line should be taken up.

Smt. Sunandamma, ex-President of the Mandali and member of the Railway Users Committee presenting a memorandum to the Minister pleaded for more amenities for women passengers, like catering facilities near the ladies compartment, reservation of seats for ladies in higher classes and through bogies. She also wanted stoppage of all trains at Pandavapura Railway Station

Smt. Devaki B. Singh, Secretary of the Mandali gave a detailed account of the working of the institution.

The Deputy Minister, who earlier went round and saw the activities of the different sections of the institution, viz., tailoring, printing, fruit, creche suggested to the Mandali to approach the local municipal council and acquire more land and have more accommodation for the institution and tap all sources and secure donations.

About amenities for ladies in trains the Minister said that he would arrange for catering at the ladies compartment but said that separate accommodation for ladies would be very harmful to the passengers and unsafe in their own interests As there was a great pressure on goods traffic, passengers had to undergo some difficulties while travelling.

As regards electrification of Mysore–Bangalore time, he said that the track was not well suited for the purpose. He instructed the officials with him to examine the question of trains stoppage at Pandavapura.

NATIONAL UNITY THRO EDUCATION

PROPER TEXTBOOKS TO TEACH INTEGRATION

—RADHAKRISHNAN'S PLEA

Prime Minister Nehru stated yesterday that the National Integration Conference has not been called because a sudden catastrophe of disintegration was hanging over the people but it is always better to turn people s mind in the right direction.

Addressing the three-day conference at Delhi. Sri Nehru said that casteism, linguism, regionalism and communalism were the outcome partly of past inheritance and partly of the suppressed bad urges coming in the wake of the tremendous transformation taking place in India.

"I am not disheartened by them at all. I view it as a challenge to us which has to be met", he added.

Inaugurating the Conference Vice-President Radhakrishnan said that national integration "cannot be built by brick and mortar or chisel and hammer but it had to grow silently in the minds and hearts of men. This process could be achieved only by education through text-books which did not corrupt tastes and did not degrade the nature of pupils."

He said that education should teach people ways of feeling and habits of behaviour and not merely impart information or technical skill.

Dr. Radhakrishnan called for a proper screening of text-books and said some of them were "filthy to the utmost extent".

The highlight of the Conference was the stress laid on proper education and economic advancement for developing a national attitude among the people to face the challenge of casteism, linguism, regionalism and communalism.

Several speakers also suggested that a permanent national integration council sould be set up to go into grievances of various communities and study the causes of tension among them.

The Conference represented a cross-sections of public life, being attended by about 150 leading personalities including public men, scientists. educationists, writers, economists, poets, Central Ministers and State Chief Ministers.

Need For Scientific Storage

GOVERNOR'S PLEA

Mysore. Sept. 30

Governor Sri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar yesterday declaring open new Warehouse Buildings here at the Regulated Market Yard stressed the need for scientific storage of foodgrains in the country.

He said that nearly three million tons of foodgrains were lost annually owing to insects and for want of suitable warehousing facilities. This was nearly equivalent to the quantity of foodgrains imported from outside from year to year.

The Governor said that the time lag between production and marketing was generally period of some anxiety for the agriculturists who had to hold the produce intact until the market could absorb it at a rate which would ensure reasonable returns. The stock had to be protected. So there was paramount necessity for organising and developing a system of scientific storage.

He was glad that the Mysore State Warehousing Corporation had exceeded its target of Second Plan by opening 17 warehouses and nearly Rs. 24 lakhs were advanced by banks against warehouse receipts during 1959-60.

The Governor said that it was only natural that in an enterprise of such importance and magnitude and in the context of the special emphasis laid on stepping up agricultural production in the country, the Warehousing Corporation should construct its own warehouses. He hoped that it would receive support and co-operation from agricultural producers and financing institutions.

Sri K. Mallappa, Chirman of the State Warehosing Corporation welcomed the gathering.

Levy of Surcharge On Vehicles

BUS-OPERATORS' PROTEST

Mysore, Oct. 3

Sri G. R. Josyer, President of the Mysore District Automobile Association has strongly protested against the decision of the State Government to levy surcharge on transport vehicles, both passengers and goods, from this month.

He told newsmen here on Sunday that this would not only create unhealthy competition among the private operators but hit the motor industry hard. Already every bus-owner was paying Rs. 30 per seat as tax per quarter. This new levy of Rs. 22.50 would enhance the annual expenditure of the bus-owners. The Government's decision of asking the private operators to collect the surcharge from the travelling public would create commotion among the passengers.

Pointing out that the State Government had stated that it had followed the principles evolved by the Madras Government in this regard, Sri Josyer said that Mysore Government had neither followed the Madras State nor provided any facility provided in that State.

He said that if the Government did not withdraw the levy of surcharge or reduce it, they would be compelled to launch a token-strike all over the State.

PUBLIC WARNED
Mysore, Oct. 6

The city police have warned that some young persons probably 'Iranis or Sindhis", roam about in the city and pick up conversation with strangers and cleaverly relieve them of their purse or costly articles.

While police vigilance has been tightened, it is desirable that the public should be careful and not entertain any stranger. It is likely that these persons may visit the houses in the absence of male members and cheat the inmates. In view of the coming Dasara, it will be difficult for the police to pick up these criminals from the vast crowd that will gather.

Public a re requested to co-operate with the police by giving timely information if they notice any stranger trying to cheat the public.

Sri Nehru said that it was necessary that India got out of the rut of social, intellectual and economic backwardness. He asked the people to shed c a s t e a n d communal instincts which were tribal in concept.

He reminded Congressmen that the hundreds of tickets given to t h e m for fighting the elections would not mean anything if they forgot the unity of India.

The All-India Congress Committee adopted unanimously the resolution on national integration, w h i c h was based on the decisions of the recent National Integration Conference at Delhi.

The National Executive of the Praja-Socialist Party yesterday welcomed the decisions of the National Integration Conference.

A resolution adopted stated that without alertness on the part of the administration and without prompt action against disturbers of peace and an assurance of full security to the innocent, the national integration must remain a "tragic hostage" in the hands of those who were determined to distort the nation's destiny.

The resolution, however gave an assurance that the party would constantly endeavour to maintain the integrity of the Nation.

RESIST AGGRESSION BY FORCE

HINDU CONVENTION LEADER'S PLEA

Presiding over the three-day Hindu Convention at Delhi yesterday, Dr. S N. Banerjee, former Vice-Chancellor of Calcutta University declared that India should be prepared to become a "nation-at-arms" to safeguard her integrity".

Referring to aggression on Indian soil by China and Pakistan, he said "If more money has to be spent in equipment of our army, it must be spent. For, if it is not possible, in spite of our best efforts to persuade China and Pakistan to give up Indian territory, we must have to rely on force. That is the only alternative left.

"India would not bow down to the threats of other nations. She must make her efforts to defend her territory".

Dr. Banerjee said that without religion, character was not formed and discipline not achieved. The elders taught youngsters falsehood, immorality, dishonesty, hypocrasy, corruption and nepotism. Political life was very much vitiated. Indiscipline had reached the leaders of the country as well.

He said these ills were due to lack of true religious training. Religion alone could save the country from the present unhappy position.

Appealing for unity and toleration, he said "we must not allow any fissiparous tendency to grow amongst us on the score of religion, caste, creed or faith."

BEHAVE LIKE DECENT HUMAN BEINGS

RADHAKRISHNAN'S CALL TO STUDENTS

The Vice-President Radhakrishnan warned yesterday that the incident in the Aligarh University had shown that there was something fundamentally lacking in the present educational system.

Inaugurating the Indian Conferenee of Social Work yesterday at Delhi, he said incidents at Aligarh, which were a matter of shame and sorrow. only showed how distant was the goal of national integration for which the recent all-party conference had laboured.

Education, he said, must make the younger generation feel that they had some given purpose to live and make them subordinate all personal preferences to the needs of the society. Otherwise "they will do what they liked no matter what happend to the society".

Dr. Radhakrishnan regretted that educated boys of the university, no matter of what community they belonged, should have degraded themselves by indulging in indecent behaviour towards their fellow students. It had been stated that all the trouble started with elections to the university union.

If elections to the University Union could bring-about disturbances. what was going to happen when the third general elections would be held next, he asked.

He said "it is a warning to us all that we should be extremely careful and see to it that it does not even matter if we lose an election, but we do not behave in an improper and indecent way".

"These incidents", he said, "are an eye-opener which must make us realise that there is so much cussedness in our nature which is being exploited by mischievous leaders. It is, therefore, for the people, leaders and politicians to set a better example to our boys".

He said that social discipline was an essential part of university education. The student community should be made to behave like decent human beings.

Rice Bran Oil Extraction Plant

Mysore, Oct. 19

Chief Minister, Sri B. D. Jatti yesterday inaugurated here "Rice Bran Oil Extraction Plant", the first of its kind in the State, at Sri Gajanana Rice and Oil Mills premises.

Sri Ramappa Rattehalli, Chairman of the Company welcomed the gathering and requested the Chief Minister to see that the edible oil extracted from the bran was used for the manufacture of soaps at the Government Soap Factory.

Sri Narayanaswamy read messages received from the State Ministers and others.

Dr. V. Subrahmanyan, Director of the Central Food Technological Research Institute, who presided complimented Sri Ramappa for coming forward in utilising the new process evolved by the Institute in extracting edible oil from the bran. He said the bran which was now being wasted, could be well utilised by extracting nearly one-fifth of edible oil, which could be used for industrial purposes. Besides, the valuable defatted bran could be used not only for animal feeding but also for being processed into protein-rich foods for human consumption.

In this connection, he appealed to the industrialists in Mysore and other parts to make use of the new food products evolved by the Institute.

Chief Minister Jatti felt happy that persons like Sri Ramappa were taking up the new industries, as the Government alone could not start all industries in the country. He assured the new enterprise that the Government would render all possible assistance. Regarding the utilisation of edible oil in the Government Soap Factory, he said that there would be no difficulty.

Sri Jatti said that there was vast field for the private sector but they should see that their goods were of best quality and standard. As regards finance, they need not have any apprehension as the banks would advance money taking into consideration the capacity of man and not the financial position of the person as it was done hitherto.

Sri Vasudeva Murthy proposed a vote of thanks.

MILITARY ACTION TO LIBERATE GOA

NOT RULED OUT, SAYS NEHRU

Prime Minister Nehru declared yesterday that India would not allow Goa to become a foreign base and "we have not given up the possibility of military action" in liberating Goa.

Sri Nehru said that from the point of view of her security, India would not tolerate a foreign base on her coast. "It is a dangerous thing. It is dangerous all the more when that Power (Portugal) is tied up with other Powers in military alliances".

He said that some of the Big Powers were supporting colonial countries because of their bases in colonial territories. They had begun to judge the question of the freedom of the colonies from the point of view of the cold war and their narrow vested interests.

The Big Powers were thinking whether freedom of the colonial territories would put an end to their bases there. This was important because Portugal and some other countries had become parts of military alliances like NATO.

The Prime Minister said that "at no time did we in our minds or actions renounced or give up the possibility of military action in liberating Goa".

"We are not in any sense tied down absolutely to pursuing a policy which we have thus far pursued. If in the interests of peace and in the interests of removal of colonialism, we have to take some other action, we shall take it", he added.

Sri Nehru gave an assurance to the struggling people of Africa of India's help in their struggle to get out of the morass of colonial domination.

NEW METHODS TO LIBERATE GOA

PRESENT POLICY A FAILURE

—SAYS NEHRU

Prime Minister Nehru declared at Bombay yesterday that India had to think fresh methods to be adopted for securing the freedom of Goa.

Addressing a public meeting, Sri Nehru said that India had so far adopted a peaceful policy to liberate this Colony and it had been a failure. It was inevitable that India which had won freedom through peaceful means should have thought so long that it would settle the issue of foreign territories too in a peaceful manner. We had been criticised for the delay because of our policy of peace.

'Though I must confess that we have been mistaken on this issue of Goa, our policy has shown to the world our sincerity and faith in peaceful solution of such problems. But we have to think afresh now because of happenings in Goa, particularly in the last few months-the cases of torture that have come to our notice and the terror that is being spread there by the Portuguese. When and how we will do it cannot be forecast now. But I have no doubt that Goa will soon be free', the Prime Minister added.

Prime Minister Nehru declared at Bombay yesterday that India had to think fresh methods to be adopted for securing the freedom of Goa.

Addressing a public meeting, Sri Nehru said that India had so far adopted a peaceful policy to liberate this Colony and it had been a failure. It was inevitable that India which had won freedom through peaceful means should have thought so long that it would settle the issue of foreign territories too in a peaceful manner. We had been criticised for the delay because of our policy of peace.

'Though I must confess that we have been mistaken on this issue of Goa, our policy has shown to the world our sincerity and faith in peaceful solution of such problems. But we have to think afresh now because of happenings in Goa, particularly in the last few months-the cases of torture that have come to our notice and the terror that is being spread there by the Portuguese. When and how we will do it cannot be forecast now. But I have no doubt that Goa will soon be free', the Prime Minister added.

The Council should cease to co-operate any longer with the exhibition authorities and withdraw all facilities given including the sanitary and engineering staff and the Councillors who were members of various committees should resign, they said.

STRENGTHEN UNITED NATIONS

TO SERVE PEACE OF THE WORLD

NEHRU'S PLEA

Prime Minister Nehru yesterday hoped that the United Nations would advance from strength to strength and serve the peace of the world and remove the remnants of foreign domination from various parts of the world.

Addressing the U.N. General Assembly in New York, Sri Nehru said that one wondered what the world would be like if the U N. ceased to be, or did not function. It was of the highest importance that the organisation should not only function with effectiveness but also the support of the countries represented there.

The General Assembly, he said, had taken many steps regarding the removal of foreign domination but these steps had not fulfilled because of the obstructiveness of some. In one place, the Congo, the U.N. had undertaken a great responsibility and on the success of that venture depended in many ways the future effectiveness of the U. N. It was of the utmost importance that the work of this great organisation in the Congo should succeed

Sri Nehru said that India was interested in this a little more than others because India had placed some of her armed forces in the Congo under the U.N. and India was interested that their functioning could yield success.

The Congo had become a symbol, the touchstone of success for the activities of the U. N.

Sri Nehru offered India's full co-operation to Mr Thant, the new acting Secretary-General because he represented the U.N to which all of us must offer co-operation.

Mysore. Nov. 13

Inaugurating the State-level seminar on the Third Plan, organised by the Mysore Pradesh Bharat Sevak Samaj, here yesterday the Governor Sri Jayachamraja Wadiyar pleaded far the co-operation of the people in the implementation of the Plan.

He said "The Third Plan represents a crucial stage in the fulfilment of our basic and economic objectives. It becomes all the more important that the co-operation and help of voluntary organisations like the Bharat Sevak Samaj should be secured for the fulfilment of the Plan's objectiue, particularly in the social field".

In organising a seminar on the Third Plan, the Samaj is tackling this problem in a scientific manner and deserves for its enterprise", he added.

The Governor said public bodies' enthusiasm for the Plan and their services, could, therefore, be invaluable and indispensable for the successful working of the Plan. In this way the plan would become the People's plan not only in theory but also in practice.

Smt. Sheila Irani, Chairman of the Reception Committee welcoming the gathering appealed for unstinted co-operation of people for the success of the Plan

In the absence of Chief Minister Jatti, the Education Minister Annarao Ganamukhi presided and read Sri Jatti's speech.

The Chief Minister Jatti while appealing for whole hearted co-operation and participation of the people in this great effort, referred to the State Plan outlay, which was Rs. 250 crores. It involved, he said, their raising within the State Rs. 110 crores in additon to Rs. 140 crores of grant from the Centre. To raise the amount in the State, they had a public borrowing programme as well as intensification of small scale savings drive in addition to larger scale taxation effort to raise Rs. 42 crores.

While all efforts were being made at Government level to effect economics as well as to get up administrative machinery for effective implementation, Sri Jatti appealed for substantial sacrifice on the part of the people for the success of the Plan.

Earlier, Sri S R. Kanthi, Speaker and Convenor of the Pradesh Bharat Sevak Samaj explained the activities of the organisation.

OBSERVANCE OF YEAR OF CO-OPERATION

NEHRU'S CALL TO UNITED NATIONS

The observance of a year of International Co operation in order to focus the minds of peoples and Governments more and more on co-operation and peace and less on violence and hatred, was suggested by Prime Minister Nehru when he addressed the United Nations Assembly on Saturday.

He urged that nuclear powers to sit around a table to solve disarmament problem, as the alternative was disaster to humanity as a whole.

Sri Nehru declared that the resumption of nuclear tests had been a disservice to the world and the country which started it and it would be a sign of strength on the part of anyone to reverse the wrong trend in the world.

He warned that the future effectiveness of the United Nations depended on the success of its activities in the Congo and therefore the objectives of removing external pressures and mercenaries and preserving the Congo's unity and integrity should be expeditionaly achieved.

Sri Nehru said that the U.S. armed intervention in South Viet Nam's war against Communist guerillas would or might lead to intervention by other Powers and could turn into a bigger and more dangerous conflict.

Expressing his deep distress over the grim events in Angola, Sri Nehru hoped that Portuguese imperialism and colonialism would end soon.

WAR MUST BE ABOLISHED

--Says Nehru

Prime Minister Nehru told a gathering of American students at New York, that the principal aim in the world today was how to avoid war and the almost certain destruction such a conflict would bring.

He added that there was an enormous amount of co-operation among the countries of world today, even between the United States and the Soviet Union. But every speech by world leaders containing some thing of a threat tended to spoil the benefits of the co-operation.

He said that Americans had a tendency to judje other people by their own strength

Answering a question, Sri Nehru said "Wars must be abolished. Small wars lead to big wars. You cannot put an end to wars unless you have complete disarmament and this means certain controls and inspection".

STOP MASS PRODUCTION OF MEDIOCRITY

MYSORE GOVERNOR TELLS UNIVERSITIES

The Governor of Mysore, Sri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar stated yesterday at Dharwar that one sure remedy for some of the more grievous problems of university education would be to strengthen secondary education.

Addressing the Convocation of the Karnatak University, he said care must be taken to see that the Secondary School Certificate itself came to denote a satisfactory and well-defined level of general competence and won public recognition as such. This would greatly reduce the huge burden that was now being put on the universities

He opined that the "time has come to consider university education of all kinds as specialisation by itself to be undertaken for specific objects and not as vague and general preparation for all professions or for no profession in particular".

The Governor said that "for a very large number of posts in public and private service, a university degree is neither a necessity nor much of a help".

He suggested adequate number of teaching institutions for those who desired to take up clerical and similar posts or to find employment in the various extension services on rural development schemes. The costly superfluity of a university degree need not be expected of them.

The Governor also underlined the importance of selecting the very right kind of teachers "at a time when the advance of the nation to equality with others demands the utmost stimulation and refinement of all the talent that we have. It would be suicidal to admit enormous numbers into our colleges and then proceed to lower our standards of teaching and examining to suit the least competent among them. This would indeed reduce the function of the university in effect to that of the mass production of mediocrity".

HIGHER PRIORITY FOR HOUSING

Sri B. Gopala Reddi, Union Minister for Works, Housing and Supply, declared today that they had succeeded in a large measure in fulfilling the housing targets prescribed for the Second Plan.

He was addressing the sixth conference of the Housing Ministers at Bhuvaneswar.

The Minister had no doubt that the funds would be augmented considerably still further with the setting up of a Central Housing Board envisaged in the Third Five Year Plan

The standard of housing was the index of a nation's social achievement: with the problem of food now under control and with cloth in good supply and we had to ensure that the third basic requirement, namely housing was met with the utmost expedition, he said.

After dealing with the problem of slum clearance in the urban areas, Dr. Gopala Reddi turned to the housing programme in rural areas and the difficulties in the way of implementing Village Housing Projects Scheme.

The village housing projects scheme was difficult for the same reason that the slum clearance scheme was difficult, both required for their successful implementation an appreciation of the real need of the people who were to be benefited under the two Schemes. If the cold logic of steel and cement and a blithe unconsciousness of economy and costs was a pitfall in the slum clearance scheme, it was a calamity of the very first order as far as the rural housing is concerned.

SCIENCE SHOULD RECOGNISE HUMAN SPIRIT

RADHAKRISHNAN'S PLEA

Bangalore, Nov. 17

The education in science and technology would be complete only if it was interspread with humanities as that would alone make the individual a 'whole man', stated Vice-President Radhakrishnan here yesterday.

Laying the foundation stone of the Golden Jubilee Library of the Indian Institute of Science, he said that to divest humanities from the studies in science would be to divide the house of knowledge

The Vice-President regretted that when changes were taking place at a fast pace, the spirit in the human individuel that had enabled great discoveries had not changed. Science should force our attention to recognise the human spirit.

It was wrong to imagine, he said, that science and humanities were two different things. They were manifestations of the human spirit. If man should have a calm, serene and patient feeling, it was the study of classics and conversation with good man that improved the individual and that would alone enable him to have a balanced outlook.

RENAISSANCE OF SPIRITUAL VALUES

ROLE OF HUMANITIES, SAYS GOVERNOR

Mysore, Nov. 21

"I have no doubt that, after the completion of all the projects envisaged, the Manasa Gangotri will be one of the finest University sites in our country. I look forward to the blossoming of the Humanities Block. Its work will be in the field of endeavouring to unveil the covered face of truth", said the Chancellor of the Mysore University laying the Foundation Stone of the Humanities Block at Manasa Gangotri this morning.

Prof. N. A. Nikam, Vice-Chancellor, presenting an address said that the Humanities Block is estimated to cost about 884 lakhs. He said that he had no doubt that Manasa Gangotri would be one of the finest University sites in the country: "thrilled and capitivated by the golden light of the setting Sun, a thing of beauty on this Campus, our teachers and students will adventure forth to unveil the pleasing face of Truth hidden by the golden disc."

The Chancellor said that no mere building-bricks and mortar-will suffice for the expression of a humanistic culture any more than a mere body will suffice for the expression of the spirit within The spirit within must be developed in such a way that it must shine through the body.

The Governor stated that it was consideration of how important and how necessary that humanity must come to be cultivated with zeal and earnestness by the youth of the Nation in order that they may grow up into the guardians of human values without which all scientific and technological development will be of little avail.

"Man can never find abiding satisfaction in the world's material goods. Literature, philosophy and the arts are absolutely necessary in order to keep alive the flame of the spiritual in the heart of man. Let the studies in Humanities become the fountain springs of the renaissance of spiritual values in us which all knowledge must subserve" he added. If we do not want our culture to remain 'sensate' with its obsession with the sensuous values of life, it is necessary to look forward to a humanistic renaissance as the only way out of the cul de sac to which we are being led in the modern world. The only corrective to the social sins consists in the spiritual regeneration of man.

In the Third Five Year Plan, education-school, university and professional-accounts for some Rs. 500 crores, which is nearly 5per cent of the total financial outlay of the Plan.

The allocation to the University Grants Commission is about Rs 37 crores, representing nearly 7 per cent of the outlay on education.

In the last ten years, the mumber of students in Indian universities and colleges has increased from about 0.4 million to nearly one million.

The Calcutta University alone has a student population nearly equal to that of all the universities in the United Kingdom. The average number of students per university is 23 000 in India as against 4,000 in the U. K.

During the last five years the strength of the staff in universities and colleges in India has gone up from 37,000 to 49,000.

That we need more universities in the country cannot be gainsaid. Even to maintain the ratio of university students to the total population at its present level requires an yearly increase in enrolment by 2 per cent, that is 20,000 additional students per year or 100,000 in 5 years. The Third Plan envisages the establishment of about 12 universities.

TALKS WITH NEHRU FRUITFUL

—SAYS IKEDA

The Japanese Premier, Mr. Hayato Ikeda stated yesterday at Delhi that he hoped that there would be closer understanding between India and Japan for the promotion of prosperity in Asia and peace of the world as a result of his talks with Prime Minister Nehru.

He said that his talks was fruitful and he found that there was not much difference in their views.

Giving his impressions about the visit to Pakistan and India, Mr. Ikeda said he had seen great efforts being made in economic development. "The impression I gain is that the standard of living and the economic development are still low and there is disparity between the rich and the poor. That is why I believe that great efforts should be made by the Governments and the peoples of both countries to further develop economies and thereby raise the standard of living".

He believed that Asians must, by all means, be friendly with each other and should help each other in improving their standards and promoting the well-being of the people.

Asked whether in these days of hydrogen bombs and long-range missiles, Japan's security was ensured by her allowing American bases in Japan, Mr. Ikeda said that under the Japanese Constitution, they had renounced possession of armed forces. No country could be defended without adequate armed forces and defence. Not having adequate defence forces, it was the Japan's basic foreign policy to co-operate in collective defence with the United States.

'MYTH OF AMERICAN OMNIPOTENCE IS A MYTH'

--SAYS ENVOY GALBRAITH

Mysore, Nov. 25

Prof John Kenneth Galbraith, the U. S. Enroy in India declared here today that the task of protecting liberty and promoting orderly development and well-being was one that must engage the thoughts and energies of all.

He was addressing the Convocation of the Mysore University.

Mr Galbraith referred to the U S. grant of economic and military aid to countries to attain and maintain their independence and made it clear that

"there could be no greater error of calculation than to imagine that the United States will to try save all comers from Communism however feeble their own efforts, however maladroit their administration, or however despotic their internal politics. Governments can be so bad either in motive or performance or a combination of the two that they are not worth saving or cannot be saved. And as a practical matter the evils of Communism may not be terribly evident to individuals who live under such regimes".

He said "We must clearly be sympathetic to those governments with a capacity for improvement. Not infrequently in past years we have found ourselves giving help to highly unsatisfactory governments But had we withdrawn our help they would have replaced it by efficient and durable dictatorship. Perhaps you will say that we should have exercised more pressure for improvement. This may have been a valid criticism. But here we encounter the conflicting principle of non-interference And ineffectual Governments are never ineffective in attacking the United States for getting too involved in their internal affairs".

The U. S. Envoy said that though his country was eager to assume responsibility in helping other nations, now the problem was how to resume responsibility without arrogating responsibility. "The myth of American omnipotence is a myth." They should reconcile the attitude that one should never intrude where one was not wanted and at the same time one should be on hand when he was wanted and needed.

About the U. S. foreign policy, Mr. Galbraith said that "we have discovered that even we cannot conduct our foreign policy with unfailing wisdom. That certain compromises become inevitable. We agree that in intercourse between nations the principle of self-determination must rule. One polity must not interfere in the internal affairs of another. Each people must have the right to develop in accordance with their own aspirations, culture and temperament. It is the rule which underlies the age of national sovereignty".

Bangalore, Nov. 27

Signature campaign expressing dissatisfaction over the selection of Congress candidates made by the Pradesh Election Committee for the ensuing general elections was a more significant feature both in the State Assembly House and the lobbies, on Saturday last.

Three separate petitions were prepared, one about general dissatisfaction which secured about 70 signatures, the second dealing with groupism which got 35 signatures and the last about the 'raw deal' meted out to the members of the Scheduled Castes, who are the supporters of the present Ministry, which obtained about 10 signatures.

These memorandums are being sent to the Prime Minister Nehru and Congress Chief Sanjeeva Reddy. A deputation is also expected to wait on them to make personal representations. The memorandum alleges that Nigalingappa group had taken a hostile attitude towards the present Ministry and its supporters in the selection. The main consideration was to 'gather support to Sri Nijalingappa', it said.

Steps Against Portuguese Atrocities

Prime Minister Nehru declared in Lok Sabha yesterday that the Government of India were taking effective steps to prevent Portuguese firing on Indian steamers and countrycraft from the Anjadev Island.

Sri Nehru said the second incident of Portuguese firing of Indian craft in which one fisherman died was a serious and a highly objectionable thing.

Repudiating the statement issued by Portugal that Indian fishing boats were going to attack Anjadev Island, he said that it was an absurd proposition that Government of India should send countrycraft or a small passenger ship to go and attack that island. 'If we want to attack, we will take better measures and send stouter ships to do that', he added.

NO LARGE-SCALE CHINESE INCURSIONS

ONLY NEW CHECK-POSTS CREATED

MILITARY POSITION IN INDIA'S FAVOUR

—SAYS NEHRU

The military situation in the northern border in Ladakh had progressively changed in India's favour during the last two years, declared Prime Minister Nehru in the Lok Sabha yesterday.

He said that he did not think that the last two years had changed the situation to the advantage of Chinese in these areas, and this was as the result of the steps India had taken to strengthen her border defences.

Sri Nehru said: "It is progressive from a military and other points of view and we shall continue to build up these things so that ultimately we may be in a position to take effective action to recover such of our territory as is in Chinese possession".

The present situation between India and China, he said, were obviously very far from friendly.

Referring to the recent Chinese spreading out of their forces even beyond the 1956 Chinese claim line in Ladakh, Prime Minister Nehru said "these fresh instances of violations establish conclusively that the Chinese are guilty of further aggression against India and their protestations to the contrary are only a cloak to cover up these renewed incursions and aggressive activities".

The Chinese had established three new military posts, one of which was at two miles to the west of their previous check-post and the other two were on the international frontier and therefore, highly objectionable. That was a sign of the Chinese aggressive mentality, he added.

Sri Nehru said it was not correct to assume that the Chinese had occupied hundreds or thousands of square miles of new territory. What they had done was to create new military posts, no doubt a few miles beyond their previously held check-posts and obviously were able to exercise some influence or control in the surrounding areas.

ARMY ON STOMACH

Prime Minister Nehru yesterday quoted Napolean's saying that an Army marched on its stomach to show how important it was to arrange the logistics, especially in the mountain regions.

He said that during the last two years, India had set up half-a-dozen new and important posts in various parts of Ladakh area. He added that a post consisted of 40 to 50 men but behind these men was a huge apparatus to feed them and supply them involving 10 to 20 times that number of persons, as an Army not only moved on its stomach but other supplies also.

Right Kind Of Food Technology

PROF. CALDER'S APPEAL

Mysore, Nov. 30

Mr. Ritchie Calder, Professor of International Relations, Edinburgh University and the winner of the Kalinga Prize called upon the food scientists for "a systematic understanding, comprehension without emotional motivations of what in fact nature of food, hunger and people would mean".

He was addressing the members of the staff of the Central Food Technological Research Institute here, on Saturday.

Paying a handsome tribute to the Institute as "one of the really important research institutions in the world and in many respects, one of the most comprehensive", Prof. Calder told them that they should convince the people that what they were doing was good for them.

He asked them "do not try and change habits extensively. Do not say science is better than food. Nobody believes in it. You just discretely put science into the food".

Prof. Calder said that in his country food was dictated by the television advertisements. They would be surprised to hear that anybody could be convinced to eat anything by attractive packaging of foods. "We are victims of the wrong kind of food technology" and he hoped that India was going to be liberated from this problem by the right application of food technology.

Govt's China Policy Under Fire

The handling of the Sino-Indian border problem by the Government of India was severely criticised by the members of the Opposition in the Lok Sabha yesterday.

They described the Government's policy as "equivocal, inept and weak".

Severence of diplomatic relations with Peking, organisation of adequate measures to get the aggression vacated and championing of the Tibetan cause were among the suggestions made for the security of the country.

They also urged that the tendency to play down the gravity of the problem should be halted and the people, who were rightly indignant over the Chinese aggression, should be given the right lead.

CHINA'S THREAT TO CROSS HIMALAYAS

STOP BORDER OPERATIONS, SAYS PEKING

ANY ADVANCE WILL BE REPELLED, REPLIES NEHRU

China has warned that if India continued her military activity near the Chinese border area, she would send their troops to cross the McMohan Line and enter the vast area between the crest of the Himalayas and their southern foot.

Prime Minister Nehru disclosing this Chinese threat to the Lok Sabha, declared that in that event "we shall esist and repel them".

Sri Nehru said that India would persue diplomtic and other peaceful means to settle the border issue and did not rule out war if it was necessary. "We are friendly to every country including China, but we will fight China if necessary".

He said that China had sought replacement of the Sino-Indian Treaty of 1954 which was due to expire in June next and had suggested that the terms of a new treaty should be discussed.

The Chinese Government note stated that the setting up of checkposts by India and extending patrolling and despatch of personnel in the Demchok and Wuje area "as unlawful activities".

Sri Nehru said that unless the world situation improved through some course like disarmament, the Indo-China border would be "one of the major trouble spots of the world".

"We have to prepare ourselves, not for today only but for tomorrow, the day after and the years ahead. That is why anything we want to do, we want to do with full preargation".

He said that so long as Chinese aggression was not vacated the basic problem remained. India wanted to avoid war but did not mean she would submit to any evil if avoidance of war meant submission.

Dealing with the Himalayas, Sri Nehru said they meant something deeper to India. He declared that "the Himalayas are not only part of our territory but they are part of our hearts and minds. It is a deep injury to us if anything happens to something which has been associated with our race, our culture and our tradition for thousands of years. The Himalayas are something deeper and more important than some territorial claim".

INDIAN AIR FORCE ALERTED

He told the Lok Sabha that in the face of the Portuguese attacks on the unarmed Indian ships and on Indian nationals, military build-up in Goa, Diu and Daman, intimidations and major atrocities by the Portuguese, India could not remain quiet.

He declared that any Government must reserve to itself the use of its troops. As to the question when, how and where, that had to be decided according to circumstances.

The Defence Minister said that the Indian Air Force had been alerted and if the Portuguese tried to do what the Katangese did, they would get it as hot as the Katangese. Although India stood for peace, it had not abjured the use of force for the vindication of her rights, he added.

PRESENT SITUATION IN GOA INTOLERABLE

STEPS TAKEN FOR ULTIMATE LIBERATION SAYS NEHRU

Prime Minister Nehru declared yesterday that the present position in Goa had become intolerable and India was perfectly prepared for any developments and consequences.

He told the Lok Sabha that India had taken certain steps to meet the "exasperating attitude of the Portuguese in Goa". "As to what all this will lead to, I cannot at the moment say, except that ultimately it must lead to the liberation of Goa", he added.

Sri Nehru said that India throughout this last 14 years had stuck to its stand that all problems should be solved in a peaceful way. "We want to keep in line with our general policy but I must say that Portugese attitude in Goa has been exasperating in the extreme and had made it difficult for us to restrain our feelings or consequent activities. We have felt that we should perfectly be prepared for any developments and consequences and we had taken some steps to that end".

He said apart from the importance of Goa and Goan freedom to us, it is a common irritant, not only an irritant but we have to suffer something in the nature of a humiliation from time to time at the hands of the Portuguese.

He then referred to the aggressive and provoctive actions of the Portuguese authorities in Goa and said that it almost appeared as if they (Portuguese) were throwing challenges to Indian positions and to India and the challenges were thrown out in an aggressive and insulting way. Therefore we decided to add to our armed forces round about Goa and this had been done and was being done.

Sri Nehru added that "we have been preparing for any contingency that may arise".

He said that he would welcome good offices from any country but made it clear that there could be no solution of the Goa problem except by the Portuguese Government walking out of Goa. There was no middle way.

Replying to a private member's resolution demanding that the Government give an ultimatum to Protugal to withdraw from its colonies in India, Sri Nehru said that there was no need to send an ultimatum because that would finally close the door for all negotiations. Notice to the Portuguese Government that Goa was an integral part of India was given the moment this country became free.

He hoped that the Portuguese Government would be prepared to agree to put an end to this colonial status of Goa and depart in peace and friendship.

At the same time, he remarked "I realise that after the experience of 14 years it is a brave and confident man who can say that such peaceful methods can bring results so far as Portugal is concerned".

INDIA MAY BE FORCED TO MEET LISBON CHALLENGE

The intransigent and belligerent attitude of the Portuguese towards India over the Goa problem would force India to meet the Portuguese challenge by the only method which it seemed to understand, it is stated.

The Government of India yesterday sent a third note to Portugal stating that nothing short of peaceful withdrawal of the Portuguese would meet the requirements of the present situation. India received a note from Portugal through the Brazilian Embassy for stationing of international observers, which was not acceptable to India. The Portuguese have not cared to reply to the first two notes of protest which India had sent earlier against its aggresive activities along theIndo-Goa border.

India further sent a letter yesterday to the President of the U.N. Security Council in reply to allegations made by Portuguese. The uote points out that it is the Government of Portugal which has reinforced its troops and navy in and around its colonies on the Indian mainland.

The tiny settlements of Daman and Diu, as well as island of Anjadev, were liberated within hours of the beginning of the campaign.

30 Portuguese prisoners were taken and substantial quantities of arms and ammunitions were seized.

COLONIAL RULE ENDS IN GOA

INDIAN FLAG FLUTTERS OVER PANJIM

'OPERATION GOA' ENDS IN 2 DAYS

After 451 years of alien rule, Goa became free yesterday and thus an era of blood and tears ended.

Within 26 hours of the 'Operation Goa' launched by the Indian Army, the Portuguese garrisons at Panjim, the capital of Goa surrendered.

Maj. Gen. Candeth took over as Military Governor of Goa.

Lt. Gen. Choudhury G. O. C. Southern Command, formerly accepted the surrender of the Portuguese forces at a solemn ceremony held at Panjim in an open square at the headquarters of the Portuguese army. The Portuguese Commander walked up to Gen. Choudhury, saluted him and standing to attention said " we hereby surrender to you". Accepting the surrender the Indian Commander said "your troops should remain in their barracks Formalities will be gone through later". The Portuguese flag was then hauled down and the Indian flag was hoisted.

Gen. Choudhury who landed in a helicopter a few miles away drove into Panjim in an open jeep and was greeted everywhere enthusiastically with 'Jai Hind'. People lining the streets waved paper tricolours, cheered and clapped. Gen. Choudhury addressing the people said the Indian defence forces will give them every protection and would see there interests were safeguarded.

He also complimented the Indian troops for their excellant performance in reaching the objective in record time.

Contrary to apprehensions and fear of long drawn struggle, the Indian defence forces completed its task of liberating Goa in less than two days without much bloodshed, thanks their mobility and also to the unstinted and whole hearted co-operation of the people of the former Portuguese.

Casualities obn oth sides were very few. Out of the 8 killed on the Indian side, four were sailors belonging to a Indian landing party at Anjadev island.

PRASAD GREETS GOAN PEOPLE

President Rajendra Prasad who resumed the office yesterday after five months, greeted the people of Goa "whose resistance to foreign domination broke up the colonial regime of the Portuguese".

In a message he said "I greet the people of Goa who have joined their compatriots after terminating four centuries old colonial rule. I congratulate the people of Goa, whose resistance to foreign domination and keenness to be free broke up the colonial regime. Our armed forces too deserve praise for having assisted our compatriots in ending the Lisbon rule".

CHEAP HOUSES

Dr. B. Gopala Reddi Union Minister for Works said at Delhi that out of the total outlay of Rs. 10,060 crores for the Third Five-Year Plan, it had been estimated that about Rs. 2,500 crores were accounted for by buildings and structures including housing.

He laid great emphasis on the activities of the N.B.C., which dealt with building designs, pre-fabrication of building components, construction techniques, and use of locally available and cheaper building meterials.

The Minister referring to rural housing said that six rural housing wings under the overall control and direction of the National Building Organisation, had been started and the activities of these wings in evolving new and cheap designs of rural houses and bringing in improved use of local building materials were of far-reaching importance.

GOA RETURNING TO NORMAL

3,500 LISBON SOLDIERS HELD

Conditions in Goa are now fast returning to normal and there is no resistance or opposition in Goa.

About 1,500 Portuguese soldiers have laid down arms. This brings the total of Portuguese taken prisoners by Indian forces to over 3,500.

The Indian troops who entered Marmagoa on Tuesday night found the harbour installations partly damaged.

Teams of officials for repairing roads, bridges and public utility services which were damaged by the retreating Portuguese, restoring post and telegraph communications and reactivating Goa Radio, have already been sent from New Delhi.

The Military Governor has issued an order declaring both Indian and Portuguese currency as legal tender. Their ratio has been fixed at 1: 6 in value. Import of rupees from India is free but from abroad is restricted to Rs. 75. The export of gold, jewellery and foreign exchange as well as Portuguese currency is prohibited.

ATHIRDURA MAHAYAGA

The 11-day Athirudra Mahayaga for Loka Kalyana commenced yesterday on the banks of the Cauvery at Rudrapatna, 48 miles from here, in the divine presence of Jagadguru Sri Shankaracharya of Sringeri Mutt.

CHINA'S SUPPORT

The Peking announced yesterday "its resolute support" of India's action to liberate the Portuguese colonies.

The Soviet Union's official organ "Pravda" hailed the Indian attack on the Portuguese enclave of Goa as a triumph of "historical justice".

The Soviet President, Mr. Leonid Brezhnev described yesterday at Bombay the liberation of Goa from the Portuguese colonialism as "a great event in the life of your motherland".

HONORARY DEGREES

Prime Minister Nehru stated yesterday that the good custom of universities giving honorary degrees was "prostituted" often for money or something else. Often a person was picked out because he had given a large donation to a university though he lacked intellectual qualifications.

He suggested that conferment of honorary degrees be done more sparingly. He also favoured a law limiting the use of the term "doctor" because too many people called themselves doctors.

MALAYAN RULER SEES WILD ANIMALS

LISBON CONQUEST OF GOA

LONG STORY OF BARBARITY AND ATROCITY

Portugal's conquest of Goa and her association with India during the last 451 years has been one long story of barbarity, atrocity and horror.

Nestling in a narrow strip between the Western Ghats and the Arabian Sea the tiny 1,312 square miles enclave of Goa is surrounded on three sides by the Indian Union. According to the 1951 Portuguese census, of its 638,000 population, only 1,438 are non-Indian origin; 61 per cent are Hindus and 37 per cent Christians.

The population speak mainly Konkini,a dialect of Marathi. There is high percentage of illiteracy. Iron ore mining, largely Indian-financed and worked by Indian labour, is the only productive enterprise in that colony.

Portuguese Goa's main income after 1947, has been smuggling into India of prohibitive imports like silks and other foreign luxuries as also a lucrative trade in cocaine and other narcotics.

Portugal's first contact with India was in 1498 when Vasco de Gama on a mission to discover a new route for the fabulous riches and spices of the East landed on the Calicut coast. The Zamorins of Calicut received the Portuguese with hospitality and were repaid with murder and pillage.

Albuquerque came and established himself in Goa in 1509, seizing it from the Bijapur Sultan and massacaring thousands of people. Thus began Portugal's 'civilising mission' and in its task of spreading the message of Christ even the ancient Nestorian Christians on India's West coast were not spared the sword.

During its 451 years rule, Portugal has had to face 20 armed revolts. Some of these were organised by the Catholic priests themselves. These revolts were brutally put down.

Portugal, during the British rule particualrly during the 20th century clung to her tiny possessions under British protection and sufferance.

World's Biggest Poll

India will reaffirm its faith in the sovereignty of the people and their right to rule themselves through whom they prefer, when it holds the general elections in Februnry next, from 19 to 24.

Twice before the country has gone over this exercise in democracy, first in 1952 and then in 1957. And every time the results have proved that climate, distence or literacy does not handicap the free choice.

This time the voters are nearly 210 million, nearly four times the population of Great Britain. The constituencies have also increased because of the separation of the two-member seats-91 Lok Sabha and 584 Assembly-into the General and the Reserved for the Scheduled Castes and Tribes.

And the period of polling has been reduced from 19 days in the last Elections to less than a week now.

The number of polling booths has been increased to about a quarter million, one for 900 voters. and so spread that ordinarily a person will not have to cover more than a mile to vote.

The names of candidates contesting a particular seat as well as the symbols of the parties they seek to represent will be printed on a single ballot paper, and not displayed on the face of separate ballot boxes as each individual candidate had in the past two General Elections. A voter is to indicate his preference on the ballot paper itself against the candidate's name or symbol, with a cross-mark stamped by a rubber seal which a polling station will supply.

The new system will save more than two million ballot boxes. Instead of 2.6 million boxes used in the last Elections, nearly ¼ million will be required this time.

LISBON-PAK PLOT FOILED

TO EMBROIL INDIA

A Portuguese-Pakistani plot to embroil India in NATO-CENTO machinations was foiled by taking speedy and effective action against Goa by Indian Government and thus saved the country from a situation which might have led to a major threat to national independence and security.

The plot involved the Portuguese transfer of the sovereignty of Daman and Diu to Pakistan, in return for Pakistan's pledge to support Portugal in the defence of Goa.

The deal, if it had materialised, would have created two Pakistani pockets on Indian soil, besides a joint Portuguese Pakistani stake in Goa, probably linking NATO and CENTO with the defence of the colonial regime in Goa.

Sri Setalvad remarked that one had reason to believe that in many parts of the country, members of the bar had instead of striving for unity and cobesion, looked with favour and encouraged some of the tendencies.

He said that lawyers should function as the heart and the core of intelligentsia and the country, remembering that the profession had for centuries been associated with a tradition of service to the community and the nation.

FOR EMOTIONAL INTEGRATION

The Emotional Integration Committee has endorsed the three-language formula for secondary education recommended by the Chief Ministers' Conference in August.

This meant that all students beyond the primary stage should learn both Hindi and English.

The committee envisages that a further variation that would have to be allowed is the use of English or Hindi as the medium of instruction in selected secondary schools provided that the other language, Hindi or English as the case may be, and the regional language are also added.

At the university level, if the medium of instruction is the regional language, Hindi and English, would be added as separate languages for study.

It has also suggested the introduction of a national pledge to be taken by students twice a year.

The committee also has favoured daily singing of the national anthem at the school assembly, provision of a common uniform in schools and provision of wider educational facilities for students coming from sections suffering social inabilities.

India's Foreign Policy

NO CHANGE SAYS NEHRU

Prime Minister Nehru yesterday declared India's action in Goa did not signify any change in the foreign policy and "we shall continue to strive to be friendly even to those who have been critical of us in this matter".

He denied that in freeing Goa from the Portuguese rule, India had in any way contravened the principles of the United Nations or international conduct. He added Goa always belonged to India and by sending her troops into Goa, India had only "put a legal seal on a histroical fact."

ARMY TO WITHDRAW

The Military Governor of Goa, Major Gen. Candeth stated yesterday that Indian troops would be withdrawn from Goa as soon as normal conditions were restored and civil administration reorganised.

While thanking the people of Goa for their assistance to the army during the brief operations, he was confident they (people) would help in building up a new India of which they were now part and parcel.

INDIA'S CONTRIBUTION TO ENGLISH

PRESIDENT'S PLEA

Mysore, Dec. 28

Presiding over the 12th session of All India English Teachers Conference, here today, Prof. A.G.Stock of Rajasthan University regretted that India had not made full contribution to the study of English literature.

She said that English has been more widely studied, even more deeply loved in India than in any other country, whose mother tongue is not English, but with rather too ready a subservience to English critical points of view, rather too much willingness to forget the traditional values of Indian culture for the sake of assimilating those of the west. When scholors and critics appear who are no less bi-literary, than bilingual, able to interpret either culture in the light of the other, then the English student will turn to them for new and valid approaches to his own literature, such as he could not found for himself.

The Professor said that there were two big immediate problems before the teachers of English in India. They were to give our students an adequate grounding in the language and to do it in a way that makes the language an instrument of genuine thought than a substitute for it. They are formidable enough; but when we surmount them there will be no more any to talk about the value of English to India. Indeed we shall begin to demonstrate the value of the Indian apporach to the study of English.

About the position of English in India, she said that as secondary education spreads beyond a relatively narrow urban and middle class circle, the proportion of such families to the number of English students must grow smaller; school and college syllabuses have to be adjusted to the ability of the average students. "It is inevitable, but it is also a potential danger to society".

ELECTIONS NOT ON COMMUNAL BASIS

Sri. Ananthasayanam Ayyangar, Speaker of the Lok Sabha suggested yesterday that it would be a wholesome principle if all political parties accepted that no election should be fought on a communal basis.

Inaugurating a Conference of Presiding Officers of Legislature at Lucknow, he said that all political parties should confine themselves to constructive programmes relating to the development of the country on educational, social, cultural and economic fields.

COMPULSORY KANNADA FOR DEGREE COURSES

SAHITYA SAMMELAN PRESIDENT'S PLEA

The 43rd Session of the Kannada Sahitya Sammelan was held yesterday at Gadag under the presidentship of Prof. K.G. Kundangar, an eminent research scholar.

Education Minister Annarao Ganamukhi inaugurating the session urged the writers to work for the all-round progress and emotional integration of the people of the State. He said the present task before the writers was to strive for the all-round development of the State, its literature and culture. People had to be properly educated towards that end, and it was to a great extent the responsibility of the writers and the intellectuals.

Prof. Kundangar while deprecating the various fissiparous trends that have arisen in the name of language etc, said that Kannadigas should develop an abiding love for their language, taking care to see that this affection did not hurt the larger interests of the country.

He deplored the secondary place to which Kannada had been relegated by being placed in the optional category in the colleges and said thatunless, along with English, Kannada was made compulsory, it would not be possible for the students to think and express themselves in Kannada and thereby contribute to the growth of their language and literature.

He urged that Kannada should be made a compulsory stduy along with English in the B.A. and B Sc. courses.He also pleaded for a reserach institute for Kannada literature.

The President said the real Karnatka State was yet to be born and urged that naming our State Karnataka would be a great symbol of emotional integration.

Dealing with Kannada literature in the present trends the President hailed the role of the Press and the critical literature which were very necessary for the growth of both the literature and land.

Referring to the absence of a glossory of scientific and technical terms in Indian languages the Professor suggested to the Government of India to appoint a committee of experts to compile a common glossory.

Sri K. H. Patil, Chairman of the Reception Committee earlier welcomed the gathering.

Rebel Congressmen Expelled

Bangalore, Dec. 29

The Executive Committee of the Mysore Pradesh Congress Committee yesterday decided to expel for six years "the defiant and irresponsible" Congressmen who have made a grievance of their failure to secure party tickets for the elections by organising a "rebel" front against the PCC to fight the elections.

In a resolution adopted, it stated that the PCC took note of the defiant and irresponsible attitude of some Congressmen who unsuccessfully sought Congress tickets for the elections and had now sought to resign from the Congress for contesting elections contrary to the pledge signed by them while applying for the party tickets. Such activities and conduct amounted to deliberately acting in a way calculated to lowering the prestige of the Congress and carrying on propaganda against Congress committees and their office-bearers.

Federation but the Portuguese authorities prevented them from going when the news of ending the colonial rule in Goa reached

English As Medium In Colleges

RAJAMANNAR'S PLEA

Mysore, Dec. 29

Inaugurating the 12th session of the All-India English Teachers' Conference, here yesterday at Maharaja's College, Sri P. V. Rajamannar, retired Chief Justice of Madras pleaded for continuance of study of English in the country.

Prof. N.A. Nikam, Vice-Chancellor welcomed the gathering.

Prof. Bharatraj Singh read messages received from the Vice-President, Mysore Governor, Sri C. Rajagopalachari and others.

Sri Rajamannar said that "English is not merely the language of Great Britain today. It is the principal world language. English may not be the national language of India but for a long time to come English, will, I hope, continue to be the language of the intelligensia and the medium of instruction in colleges. The fact that was the language of our erstwhile rulers should not affect the issue with a false sentiment".

About the future of English in India, he was happy that the question had ceased to be alive because all the leaders were in agreement that English should continue to be taught as a compulsory subject though there appeared to be a difference of opinion as to when its study should commence.

Sri Rajamannar advocated the study of the Bible as compulsory for any course in English. He also suggested that there should be convention that professors of English in colleges, particularly for honours courses should hold a degree of a British University.

Prof. Narasimiah proposed a vote of thanks.

The Government of India has asked the Chinese Government to change its hostile attitude towards India before negotiating for a new treaty over Tibet.

Disclosing this, Prime Minister Nehru stated yesterday that the Chinese having occupied Indian territory, there had to be change in all this business before the question of a fresh treaty could be considered.

He made it clear that unless the Chinese vacated the Indian territory, which they had occupied in Ladakh, there would be no question of India entering into a new treaty.

GOA ACTION PUT OFF TWICE

REVEALS NEHRU

Prime Minister Nehru yesterday disclosed that action in Goa was postponed twice and only after the United States, the United Kingdom, a Latin American country and even the U.N. Secretary-General had failed to persuade Portugal to negotiate with India that action became inevitable.

He warned that "there will be hell in the world" if any attempt was made to restore Portuguese colonial rule in Goa, as suggested in a New York paper.

The Prime Minister was particularly disturbed at the kind of "black versus white" mentality developing over this issue of colonialism and advised the Indian newspapers not to aggravate the situation by paying back India's Western critics in the same coin.

He underlined that Goa action had become a historical necessity step by step and nothing had happened since the advent of independence that had thrilled every section of the Indian people as the liberation of Goa.

Sri Nehru made it clear that India had never ruled out the use of force and that even friends of Mahatma Gandhi had sent him messages of congratulation on the restoration of freedom to Goa. Far from going back on its policy of peace, India had explored every means before taking action, after taking into account international implications. "It was a choice of the lesser evil", he said.

He said that legislation providing autonomy for Goa as a separate entity directly under the Centre would be brought up before the new Parliament. As soon as conditions were normalised, the civil administration would replace the present military regime.

All the treasuries have been opened and Government servants and pensioners are being paid.

The trunk roads and the main roads which had been mined by the Portuguese have now been repaired.

The Government servants who had not yet returned to duty have been asked to do so by Jan. 7. The Portuguese stamps have ceased to be legal tender from yesterday.

Don't Harass Devotees

JATTI TELLS ARCHAKAS

Mysore, Jan 2

Sri B.D. Jatti, Chief Minister called upon the archakas in temples not to harass the devotees and make them feel that they had set foot in an entirely new 'loka' when they entered the temple

Presiding over the convocation of the Agamasikshana of the local Maharaja's Sanskrit College, here on Sunday, Sri Jatti pointed out that the State had provided for the livelihood of the archakas and that they also enjoyed the patronage of affluent persons. It was, therefore, necessary that they should feel satisfied and endeavour to serve the needs of the bhaktas.

Agama Sikshana imparted training in the methods and system of worshipping God and that our temples and mutts and the archakas and matadhipathis were the champions and propagators of our culture. Their behaviour and conduct should serve as a model to the devotees. It was truly said that an archaka by being true to himself and highly cultured, could infuse life into the idol, he said.

Sri Jatti said that nowadays they heard loose talks about temples and mutts. This was due to the absence of conscience of conscientious archakas and matadhipathis.

The atmosphere in a temple should be such as to make the devotees feel that they had entered a new 'loka'. The archakas could spiritualise and uphold the agama culture by being true to it.

Sri M.P L. Sastry delivered the convocation address.

Sri K.M. Revanasiddiah, Principal welcomed the gathering.

RADIO TIME FOR PARTIES
IN GENERAL ELECTIONS

The Election Commission with the concurrence of the Government of India have allotted 600 minutes spread over 20 days between Jan. 27 and Feb. 16 in the All India Radio for various parties for electioneering during the general elections.

The criterion for a proportionate distribution of time among the parties will be the total number of seats a party holds at present in the Lok Sabha or a State Assembly plus the number of seats it will contest in the coming elections.

The broadcast will be split as Central and State, 300 minutes each, 15 minutes a day for 20 days.

There is no censoring of the broadcasts, but the Election Commission expects that the speakers "will maintain a high standard of decorum in their election propaganda".

The Commission has advised the parties to avoid "any form of propaganda, based on religion, caste or community and derogatory remarks on religion, race or caste. There should be no adverse references to foreign countries withwhich India has friendly relations".

Spread Temper Of Science
FOR SOLVING BASIC PROBLEMS
ENHRU'S APPEAL TO SCIENTISTS

Prime Minister Nehru yesterday appealed to scienrists to spread the influence or temper of science all over India because it was only through science that the basic problems of our country could be solved.

Inaugurating the Indian Science Congress at Cuttack, Sri Nehru said that science was obviously important for the world; and so far as India was concerned it was more so, of tremendous importance.

Sri Nehru said that other problems of humanity had been aggravated by the advance of science, that is the power that science conferred on humanity, because it had not yet succeeded in giving wisdom to use its power for the advance of humanity. Misuse of its power in the old days did harm only in small areas but now the harm would be world-wide and much more disastrous and in the ultimate analysis might even threaten the survival of humanity.

NO COMPROMISE WITH OTHER PARTIES

NEHRU WARNS CONGRESSMEN

Prime Minister Nehru yesterday warned those Congressmen who thought of effecting a compromise with other parties "to pack up their things immediately and leave the Congress fold".

Addressing the Subjects Committee of the 67th session of the Indian National Congress at Sri Krishnapuri (Bihar), Sri Nehru turned down the suggestion that theCongress should come to a compromise with all other parties in tackling nation's tasks and declared that there can be no compromise with communal parties and reactionary organisations nor any compromise with the Swatantra Party.

He said that "if any party suggested that the old feudal system of jagirdari and zamindari could be established, it was an utter impossibility".

Describing the Swatantra Party as a 'strange tamasha of caps, crowns and pugris", Sri Nehru said that party wanted to bring back the past and oppose every change and its plank was the abuse of the Congress.

But the Congress, he said, "as the agent of the destiny of India", had an ideal of taking the 43 crores of people of India on the greatest pilgrimage in the history of India, the pilgrimage of making India's future. The Congress had the primary duty of enabling the people of India to enter into the "Machine age" to be fulfilled.

CROWDS RUSH TO DAIS: MANY INJURED AND SWOONED

Many persons fainted and nearly 25 people were injured in the stampede.

While the country's top leaders helplessly and anxiously looked on, Sri Nehru showered blows to release himself from the officials who cordoned him. A security officer ultimately pinioned Nehru and physically prevented him from jumping into the solid seething mass. He was ultimately persuaded to withdraw from the platfom.

Goa Action: No Change In India's Policy

SAYS NEHRU

Prime Minister Nehru declared yesterday that India's policy of peace and non-alignment had not changed by an iota after the Goa operation.

Speaking at the Subjects Committee of the Congress session at Srikrishnapuri, he expressed amazement at the 'angry criticism" in certain sections of the British and American Press against India's action in Goa and said "I have not a shadow of doubt that we had full right to do what we did in Goa". He added that he had not broken any principle of the United Nations.

Sri Nehru said some Western countries which appeared to be angry over India's action in Goa had been sleeping all this time and had never moved even a little finger to help settle the issue peacefully. These countries, on the other hand, had been patting Portugal on the back for ruthlessly pursuing its colonial policies

He said that success in Goa should not be called a military victory as there was no fighting. The Portuguese had offered no resistance. The smooth and swift campaign of India's armed forces had made many other countries quite aware and conscious of India's capacity and streagth.

WIPE OUT ANTI-NATIONAL FORCES

CONGRESS PRESIDENT'S CALL

Congress President Sanjiva Reddy stated yesterday that the anti-social and anti-national forces, which were responsible for the recent communal and linguistic controverties have to be curbed and destroyed at the very root.

Addressing the 67th session of the Indian National Congress at Srikrishnapuri (Bihar), he said that communal and linguistic controversies had to be tackled and handled with the broader approach of national unity.

Sri Reddy reminded the Congressmen to be constantly on the vigil about the communal, lingustic and parochial forces, which were basically reactionary in nature.

He warned the partymen that serious challenge to the Congress would not come from communal or reactionary parties, but, if at all, from mutual recrimination among Congressmen themselves. He appealed to them to forget all their mutual quarrels and to fall in line and identify themselves with the great ideals with which the Congress Party is associating itself.

Civic Chief's Visit To Delhi

DIFFERENCE IN PARTYMEN

Mysore, Jan. 10

At the meeting of the Municipal Council held on Monday, some of the Congress members opposed the proposed trip of the President and the Commissioner to New Delhi.

The Council, about three months back had adopted a resolution to send the President and the Commissioner to Delhi to impress on the Central authorities on the needs of the city, for which the Government had accorded sanction.

Messrs. S. Sanjeeviah, B. N. Kempe Gowda, A. Krishnamurthy Rao and M. K. Lingiah (Congress) stated there was no need for such a trip since all their problems had been represented to the Central Ministers when they visited the city. The water supply being the main problem, had already been solved. It was wrong to fritter away the rate-payers' money.

Messrs Somasundara Sharma, Sriramasetty (Opposition) and Dodda Thammiah (Cong.) questioned the legality of re-opening a subject which had been disposed of within three months. They expressed their astonishment at some of the members of the Ruling Party opposing the very same resolution adopted previously.

Smt. Soundaryamma raised a point of order that the Council should not discuss or modify its resolutions adopted within three months.

Sri B. Narayana Swamy intervened and pleaded that the subject be deferred. He also requested the lady member not to press her point of order.

The House accordingly deferred the subject.

300 New Process To Industries

NATIONAL LABS. ACHIEVEMENT

About 300 processes developed by the national laboratories in the country had so far been given over to industry for commercial utilisation, stated Dr. M.S. Thackar, Director-General of Scientific and Industrial Research.

He said by the end of 1960 about 90 pilot plants had been established in 11 laboratories. Small rural industries were also being helped by means of extension services by some of the laboratories.

The CSIR, he said, had helped the formation of co-operative research associations of textiles, rubber and paint industries.

Prof. Thackar said that one of the main developments during the last five years was the ipitiation and encourgement of co-operative research by industry and establishment of floor research departments by some of the big industrial concerns.

Though the CSIR was not directly concerned with the development of research departments in the universities, it helped in large number of 'adhoc' research projects (about 486) by the the universities.

Despondency & Insecurity In Country

DUE TO INCOMPETENCY OF GOVERNMENT

SAYS ASHOK MEHTA

Mysore, Jan. 17

Sri Ashok Mehta, Chairman of the Praja-Socialist Party yesterday stated that the present Government "is old, tired jaded and incapable".

Inaugurating the Party's electioneering campaign here at the Townhall, Sri Mehta regretted that after 15 years of independence, there was more frustration, despondency, despair and insecurity in the country. This was due, he said, to "incompetency of the Congress Government and the instability of the administration".

He also pointed out that during these 14 months, there was humiliation heaped on India both by China and Pakistan with their aggression and occupation of nearly 64,000 sq. miles. This was a deepest concern to the people of India.

The PSP Chief said that in August 1947, when people fought and sacrificed, there was no doubt about the future of the country. But now, there was a growing feeling of weakness and forces of integration and doubt after the future of the country.

Although the people were enthusiastic and intelligent, owing to the incompetence of Government, there was too much waste and stagnation in many of the industries run under public sector, specially in coal and steel.

Sri Mehta instanced the case of Hindustan Machine Tools Factory in Bangalore and said there were our own workers who were doing very splendid delicate work and none too inferior to Swedish workers. A sum of Rs. 300 crores had been invested in the factory. He asked what was the return for this huge amount Only eight annas per Rs. 100.

The Government, he said, boasted that the national income had increased by 46 per cent When he asked the Prime Minister in the Lok Sabha what had become of the increased income, Sri Nehru replied he had no figures. Then a Commission was appointed to find out what had become of this income.

He said that the economic forces created inequality and it was only political forces that could create the condition of equality. But he as sorry, that inspite of the Congress Government, boasting about Socialist ideology, had done nothing to bring down inequality and "the poor are becoming poor and the rich becoming rich". All the sacrifices of people were going in vain.

The country, he said, needed a Socialist polity. So he appealed to the people to change the Government by voting the PSP into Power.

Sri Shivappa, President of the State unit, welcomed the gathering.

Sri Mehta on his arrival in city was given a warm welcome and taken in a procession through important thoroughfares.

12650 Polling Stations In Mysore

Bangalore, Jan. 19

In Mysore State, the number of electors have increased by 13.5 per cent since the last General Elections and the total electorates is now 1,13.51, 529 as against 1,00.06.226 in 1957.

The 208 Assembly and 26 Parliamentary constituencies will have 12,650 polling stations, each to poll between 900 to 1,260 votes. The polling stations have been so arranged that no voter will be required to walk more than three miles from his residence.

Sri Sampathkumaran, State Chief Electoral Officer told pressman yesterday that there was a certain amount of feeling about the secrecy of voting as the polling officers would note down the number of ballot paper issued to a voter. It was felt that it might be possible for candidates or their agents to note down the number of the ballot paper issued to a voter. But there was very difficult as the numbers printed were very small. Besides, the poling officers had instructions to see that candidates or their agents were prevented from noting the numbers. The numbers noted by officers would be kept secret in a sealed cover after the day's polling. So he said there was no need for any apprehension over the maintenance of the secrecy of voting.

HEALTH INSURANCE POLICY

GRADED CHARGES IN PUBLIC HOSPITALS

MUDALIAR BODY RECOMMENDATIONS

The Health Survey and Planning Committee headed by Dr. Lakshmanswami Mudaliar has opined that the Third Plan outlay of Rs. 342 crores on health was disproportionately small taking into consideration the requirements for a national plan and said that the minimum provision ought to be at least ten per cent of the total outlay of the Plan.

It has recommended three ways of raising additional resources for expansion of medical facilities in the country.

Firstly, it has suggested the introduction of a system of graded charges in public hospitals for the services rended to both in-patients and out patients, except in the case of the truly indigent.

Secondly, it says, the possibility of levy of a health cess, like the educational cess in some States, should be explored.

Thirdly, it has advocated a long-range health insurance policy for all citizens of India with the rate of contribution depending upon the income of the persons concerned.

The committee has pointed out that the development of a medical care programme on the lines of a National Health Service, depending entirely upon State revenues, cannot be considered a practical proposition in the near future.

It has urged priority to be given to the control of communicable diseases, drinking water supply and drainage.

The committee stated that the present maldistribution of medical personnel available, a large number of whom were in the urban areas, should be remedied. Also, highly qualified medical men should not be engaged for routine types of work which could be handled by para-medical personnel.

The committee felt that the primary health centres as at present constituted were inadequately staffed and equipped. They had, therefore, suggested that instead of opening more such centres, the existing ones should be upgraded so that each was capable of effectively serving a population of 40 to 60 thousand.

On professional education, the committee said that one Medical College for every five million population should be set up. Thus there would have to be 90 colleges for the existing population as against 61.

It urged that post-graduate education should be the sole responsibility of the Central Government.

People Losing Patriotism

SRINGERI SWAMIJI'S FEAR

Mysore, Jan. 22

His Holiness Sri Sringeri Swamiji expressed the fear that the people were losing the sense of patriotism and that they belonged to this great mother-land.

The Swamiji told pressmen on Saturday that people no longer undertook pilgrimages to ancient holy places and said that even he, a Swamiji, might not be welcome in other States, with their strong provincial feelings.

He strongly advocated the taking back of all Hindus who had changed their religion and said a simple "prayaschitta" costing only Rs. 10 would be sufficient.

His Holiness deprecated the present casteism in the country and said that it was the product of politicians. He regretted that the ancient system of Varanasharma no longer existed.

The Swamiji said whatever might be the advance of science, it would not give happiness to man. Only contentment and understanding of one's own self would bring happiness to mankind, he said.

His Holiness spent nearly 75 minutes with the local pressmen who called on him at Sri Shankaralaya.

10 Per Cent Savings

The overall average savings in India is not less than ten per cent of income, according to the National Council of Applied Economic Research.

85 per cent of the urban households, which account for 52 per cent of the aggregate net income do not save at all. The main reason for this is that they belong to the strata where the annual income is less than Rs. 3,000. All the saving that is effected is, therefore, done by 15 per cent of the urban households which own 48 per cent of the aggregate income.

Certain other broad conclusions drawn after analysing the data collected during the urban household survey are that only the tax-payer class saves. There is no net hoarding of gold and silver. A certain amount on debt is being incurred for non-productive purposes And there is a lot of unnecessary expenditure on weddings and other occasions.

INDIA IN QUANDARY

Prime Minister Nehru stated yesterday that India faced a 'quandary' over the evacuation of about 3,250 Portuguese soldiers interned in Goa.

We have told Portugal that they were welcome to take these Portuguese away from Goa. But they are not taking them away. It is a new quandary, what we should do with them".

TO VACATE CHINESE AGGRESSION

FORCE IF NECESSARY, SAYS NEHRU

Prime Minister Nehru declared yesterday that India was determined to get the Chinese aggression on her soil vacated by peaceful methods but if it became necessary to use force to achieve this, she would do so.

Addressing a public meeting at Delhi, Sri Nehru said that it was childish to demand that India should immediately march her armies against China to throw her out from Indian soil.

He said that without full preparation, it would be folly to use armed force to get this kind of aggression vacated. When we use armed force, we should do so with the idea of winning and not losing. Anyone who suggests that we should at once be jumping into the fray without adequate preparation is indulging in irresponsible talk.

Sri Nehru said that the main question before the world was of war and peace. If there was another great war, the world would be reduced to shambles. Even though India would not be in any such war, the effects of a nuclear war were bound to be felt by it. India would continue her policy of non-alignment and in the cause of peace and to prevent war.

He also warned people against communal parties, which would ruin India.

COLOMBO PLAN REPORT

The Indian economy by the end of the Second Plan registered a marked advance in agricultural and industrial production, according to the tenth annual report of the Colombo Plan Consulatative Committee.

During the past ten years, the Report says, India carried through its first two Five-Year Development Plans involving an outlay of Rs. 10,110 crores. During this period, agricultural production rose by about 40 per cent, while industrial production rose by almost 75 per cent.

Industrial production increased by about 11 per cent and agricultural production by 8 per cent over the previyus year.

There was an increase of 42 per cent in the national income and of 17 per cent in the per capita income.

The population increased at a mean decenial rate of 21.59 per cent. Prices rose by about 20.24 per cent over these years.

The massive development effort was not without considerable strain on the balance of payments. Gold and foreign exchange holdings declined during the period from 1,988 million to 637 million dollars.

The rise in prices and the strain on the balance of payments persisted at the end of the Second Plan, reflecting a continued shortage of resources relative to demand.

There was also a further step up in investment, both public and private.

National income which had risen by less than one per cent in 1959-60 because of adverse weather showed a substantial increase by about 6.5 per cent in 1960-61.
